In looking over some of the galley proofs for the annual you are now reading, it is easy to understand why yearbooks are so popular and why the day of distribution is one of the most eagerly anticipated days of the school year. The opportunity to relive some of the high-lights of the past affords pleasure to all who have been a part of those activities. The annual editor and her staff hope that this pleasure will increase in the future as you read through the pages of the 1964-65 Scope.

Senior Class Officers

We, the Seniors of 1965, look back over our four years at Pacific High with justifiable pride.

The class was well represented in the National Honor Society and many were eligible for scholarships.

Our class has won an enviable reputation in sports. The football team, consisting of many Seniors, won the most games in the history of Pacific High.

The whole class took part in intramurals in our Junior year and won the intramural trophy.

Four of the Varsity Cheerleaders were Seniors, several of whom have served in this capacity for the four years of their high school careers.

We are proud of our financial condition; all through high school we have had enough capital to pay for any class sponsored activities.

Considering our past accomplishments, we look forward to greater ones in the future.

President,
Pete Brooks

The Junior class of Pacific High had 65 students. We were the smallest class, and we sponsored the most important social event of the year: The Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet. To make money, we sold hot dogs and popcorn or baked potatoes at all of the home games. We sponsored several raffles, raffling cakes and stuffed toys. We held several baked food sales which were all successful. Also, we sponsored the Sadie Hawkins dance, which was considered a great success.

Two of our boys won the player of the week award in football, In the competition yell our class won the bell several times.

All-School Play

The all-school play, "Our Town" by Thornton Wilder, was rated as a big success. If you judge by attendance, it set a record. If you judge by comments and criticisms, it was equally great. Everyone gave a great performance, reflecting the many hours of rehearsal under the capable direction of Mr. Paul Clute, Director of Dramatics.

Other plays given this year were: "The Stolen Prince," a Children's Theatre Production, and the Junior and Senior class plays. These were "Sorry, Wrong Number" for the Juniors and "The Trysting Place" for the Seniors. These productions were also outstanding.
