SCHOOL LIFE	77

The school year 1970-1971 has passed through each of our lives never to return again. To some of us, its passing was embraced with joy and expectation of the future; to others, it was the end of security provided by old friends and familiar, close relationships. Whatever it was to you, we hope that this yearbook will supply you with vivid memories of your high school friends, classes, and activities.

Mr. Stewart Smith, Superintendent and Clerk of District 2CJ, came to Pacific from Burns, Oregon. He is the chief administrative officer of the district and is responsible for the broad, overall education program as determined by him and the Board of Education.

Mr. John Wahl, Principal of Pacific High, is the head of all activities here at the school. If a problem arises, he is ready to take action. Among his many duties are advising the student council at their meetings and acting as chairman at the faculty meetings.

Mrs. Helen Slocum and Mr. Smith's office girls work together to smoothly operate the business of the district. Mrs. Slocum is the deputy clerk of the school district. She keeps books, makes out the payroll for district employees, and serves as secretary at school board meetings. Pictured are Carol Knapp (at the typewriter), Kathleen Parks, Cathy Tucker, Mrs. Helen Slocum, and Bev Coombes in the foreground.

The Board of Education is made up of seven members, representing all parts of the school district. They are elected by the people to serve as a legislative body in determining school policy, for setting the amount of the school budgets, for building, for transportation, and for many other programs. Pictured from left to right around the table are Mr. Tom Meade (chairman), Mrs. Violet Stevenson, Mr. Newton Haga, Mr. Robert McKenzie, Mr. Stewart Smith (superintendent), Mr. John Donaldson Jr. (behind Mr. Carr), Mr. Roy Carr, and Mr. Orris Smith.

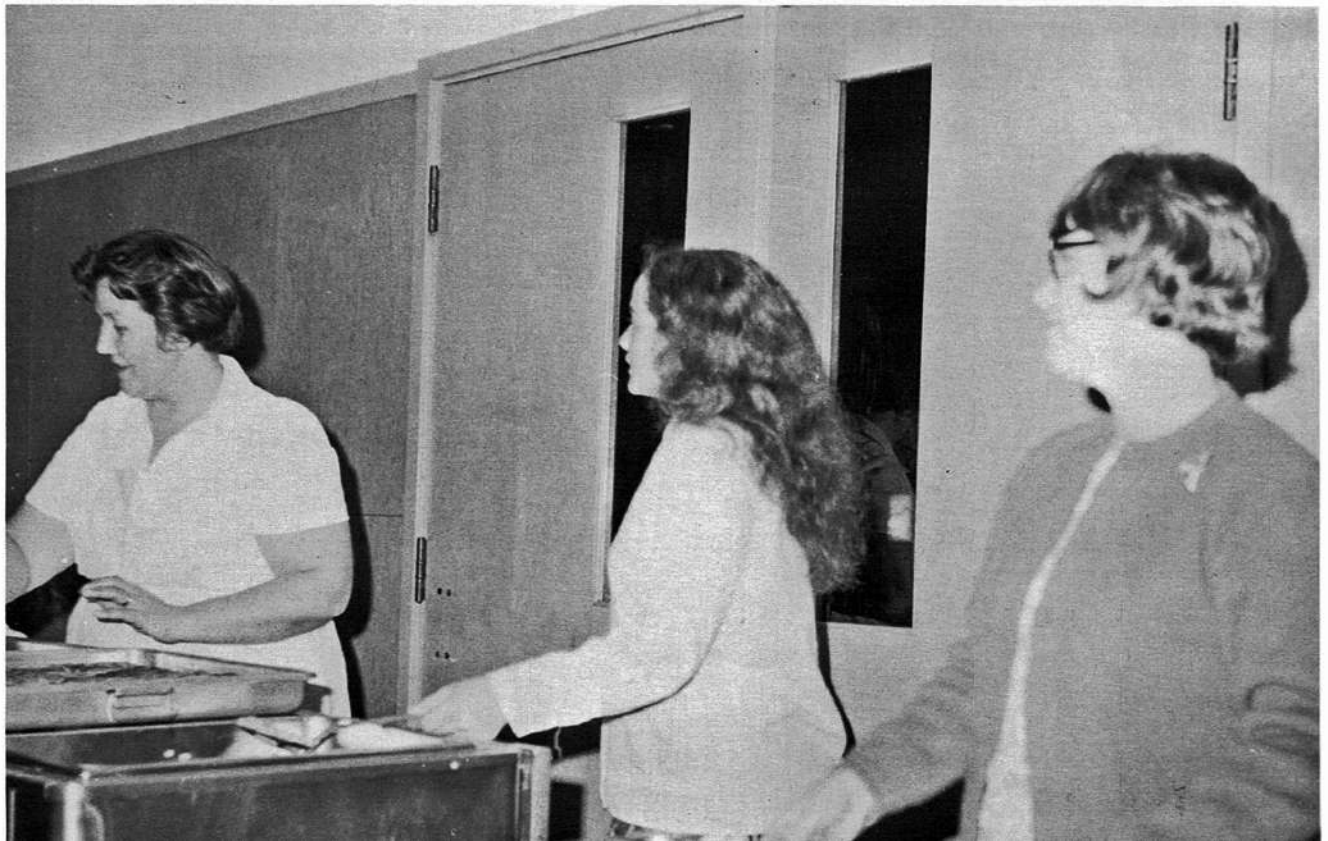

Mrs. Kathy Hunt and the office girls work hard each day to produce a very effective and unique office. Here Carol Tope (on the left), Diane Haga, Leta Moore, Lynda Steigler, Mrs. Kathy Hunt (the school secretary), and Carol Donaldson work swiftly to get everything done on time.

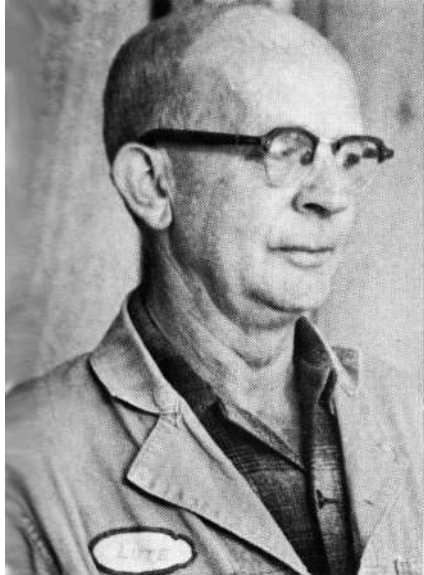

A properly run and orderly library is one of the most important assets to a school. One way to achieve this goal is by putting forth the effort. Those responsible for this are Mrs. Bonnie Wagner (assistant librarian) and the library girls Linda Billings, Kathleen Parks, Lori Loshbaugh, Jean Potter, Janet Bays, and Katrina Montgomery (Sid).

"Man can't live by bread alone", seems to be the motto of the lunch servers. Here camera shy Mrs. Betty Keeler, Lisa Parks, and Mary Foster carry out their daily duty of serving lunch.

CUSTODIAL STAFF

Mr. Lute Henry (top left) is the mechanic for our district. His job is to assure us of properly operating buses and other means of transportation. Mr. Rudy Samudio (top center) is Pacific's nighttime worker. He works to provide a clean school to greet everyone in the morning. Mr. Tiny Lawrence (top right) works as janitor and assists Mr. Henry in the bus garage. Mr. Milton Leer (right) is caught in the act as he opens the door. His job is to provide general maintenance for the school.

YOU'RE IN THEIR HANDS: It's the job of the bus drivers to assure safe transportation to and from school each day.

As in all work, there has to be a little horseplay. Here it is demonstrated by Lori Loshbaugh and Keith Peterson.

Advisor Dean Davis

Annual Staff is not all fun and games. The book itself consists of many hours of work. First, ads were sold in Coos Bay and to local firms. Then began the work of making dummy pages of the final copy. The photography was up to Bill Lenox and Tim Sparks, who also worked in the dark-room with Jerita Hefner. As the deadlines neered, many hours were spent in cutting, pasting, and brains straining for copy. Advisor Dean Davis was the driving force behind the Annual, without whom none of this would have been completed. Starting with a deficit, we were very glad to be able to offer an annual bigger than last year's.

GAA

The GAA was very active this year. We had no cross country team, but individual girls ran at a playday in Bandon. Seasons in volleyball, basketball and track were very good, and six girls went to state in track. The girls sold buttons and had a playnight to earn money. Girls of the month were chosen each month, with Laura Marstall chosen Girl of the Year. Leta Moore was named Most Valuable and Janell Wilcox was named Most Improved. They both received trophies for these honors.

Mrs. Miller, GAA advisor, watches a game while Darla Rowling plans her revenge.

GIRL OF THE YEAR LAURA MARSTALL

Varsity cheerleaders were Donna Branham, Carol Tope, Kim Dunn, Carol Ann Knapp, and Becky Still (not pictured). They were assisted by Steve Osberg, Lewis Lang, and Bruce Slocum.

RALLY SQUADS

Freshmen cheerleaders Bev Hanns, Paula Roberts, and Georgia Mayea were chosen after the first grading period. They encouraged the freshmen basketball team at home or away.

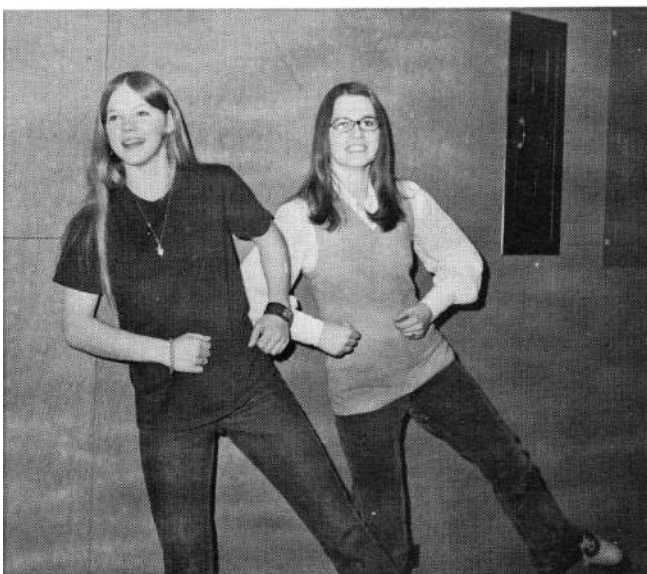

POM-PON GIRLS

Bruce Slocum jumps high to hit the basket while Jim Kirchgessler moves in to rebound if necessary.

EN'S CLUB

One of the things that must be done in most clubs is to elect new officers. Here nominations are being taken for secretary.

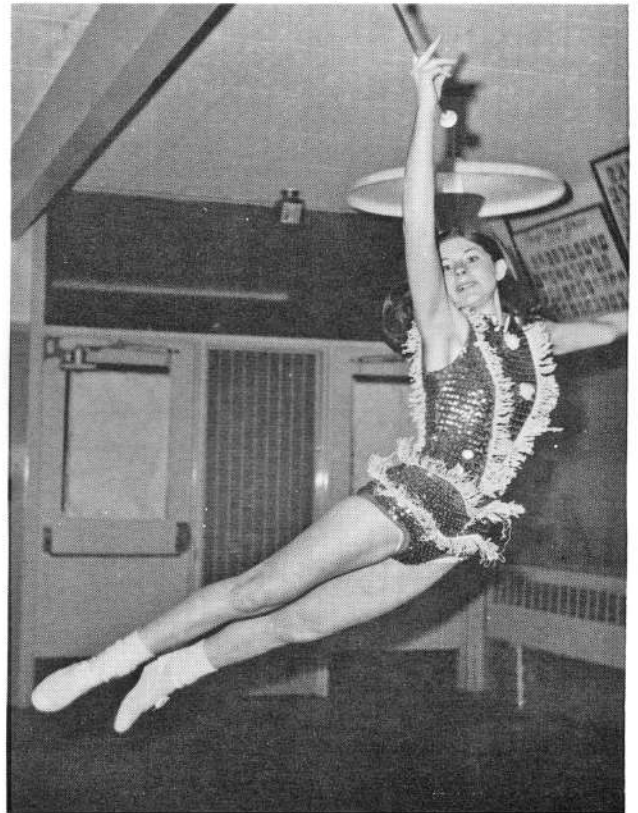

PEP CLUB

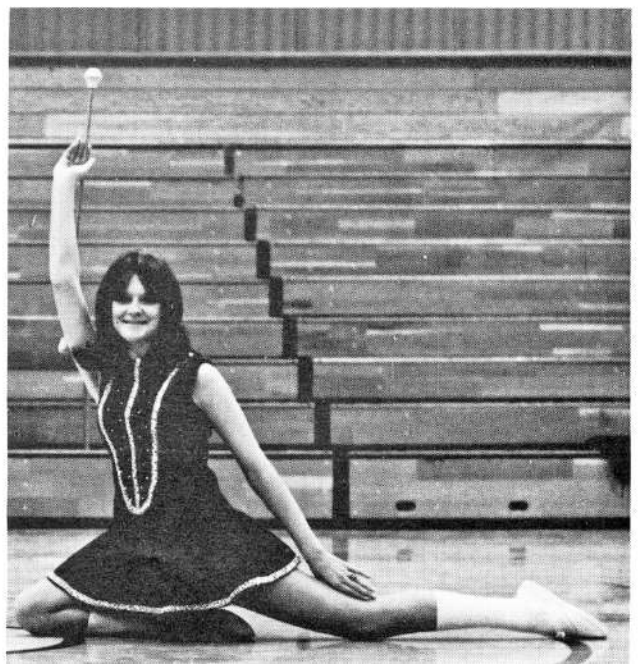

The Pep Club, led by Advisor Mrs. Miller and President Kathy Aldropp, was active keeping the school spirit high. Members were Karen Aldropp, Debbie Estes, Mary Stock, Patty Brown, Dawn Coble, Loleta Moore, Cathy Tucker, Debbie Matheison, Carol Hunt, Janis Petok, and Dana Bean.

TWIRLERS

Becky Still, head twirler, performed at half-time shows and with the marching band. Becky was well received wherever she performed.

In their second year as twirlers, Laurie Sells, left, and Jolene Preston, right, performed at half-time shows throughout the year.

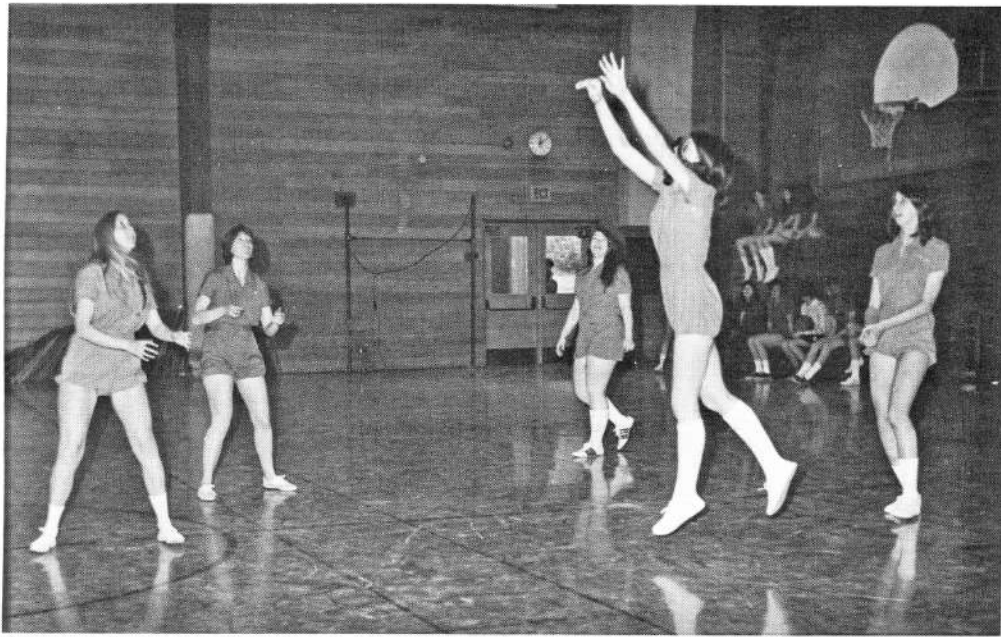

The varsity volleyball team was (back row) Toni Harrington, Carol Donaldson, Becky Still, (front row) Debbie Smith, Leta Moore, and Cathy Tucker. The girls had a good, although short, season.

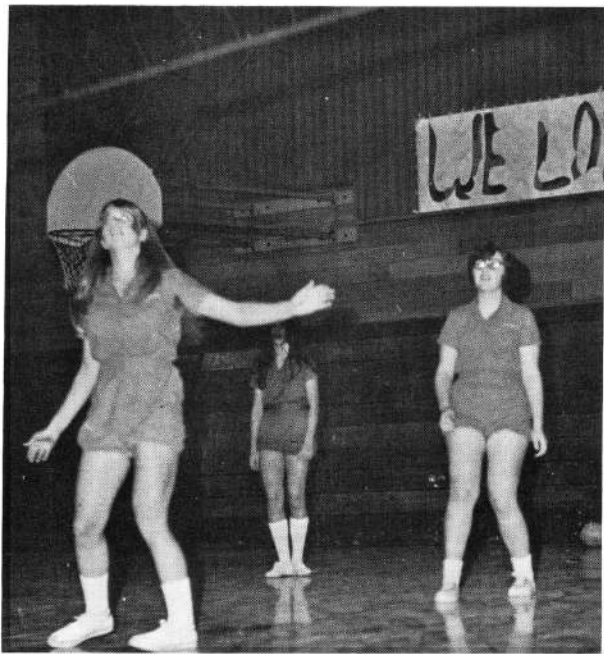

VOLLEYBALL

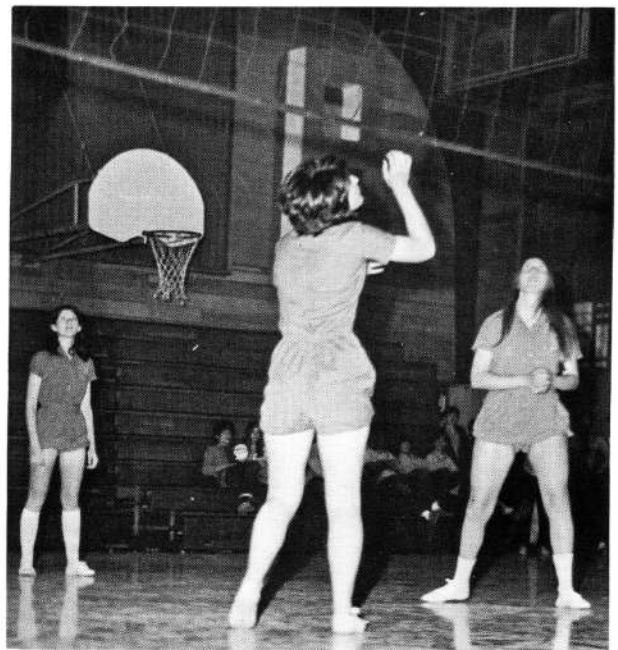

The junior varsity team consisted of (standing) Darla Rowling, Mrs. Miller (coach), Georgia Mayea, Janell Wilcox, (kneeling) Susan Donaldson, Linda Moore, and Linda Cobb. These girls give hope to a good varsity next year.

Becky Still goes into the air to hit the volleyball, while Toni Harrington prepares to "dig" it if the need arises. Cathy Tucker, Debbie Smith, and Carol Donaldson are prepared to assist.

Linda Moore is preparing to side arm the volleyball while Darla Rowling and Georgia Mayea watch.

Carol Donaldson and Debbie Smith are preparing to return a ball while Becky Still looks on.

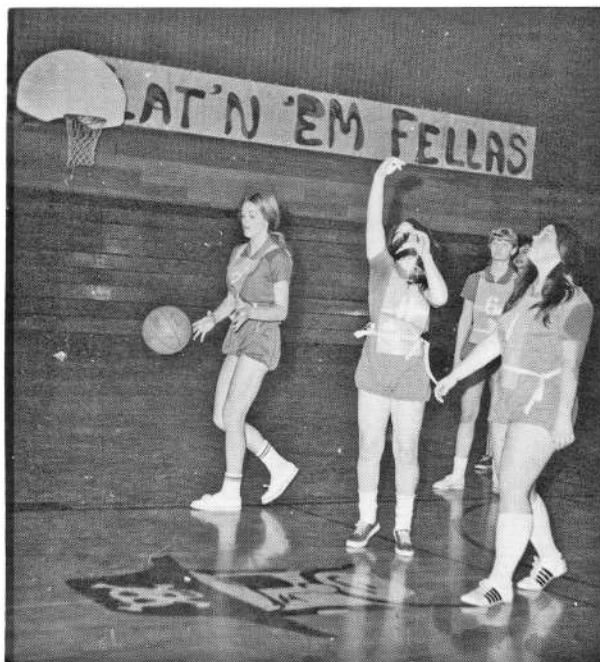

(Standing) Laura Marstall (manager), Dyan Colven, Kathy Aldropp, Cathy Tucker, Darla Rowling, Mrs. Miller (coach), (kneeling) Toni Harrington, Lois Lang, Teri Harrington, and Leta Moore are the girls who comprised the GAA varsity basketball team.

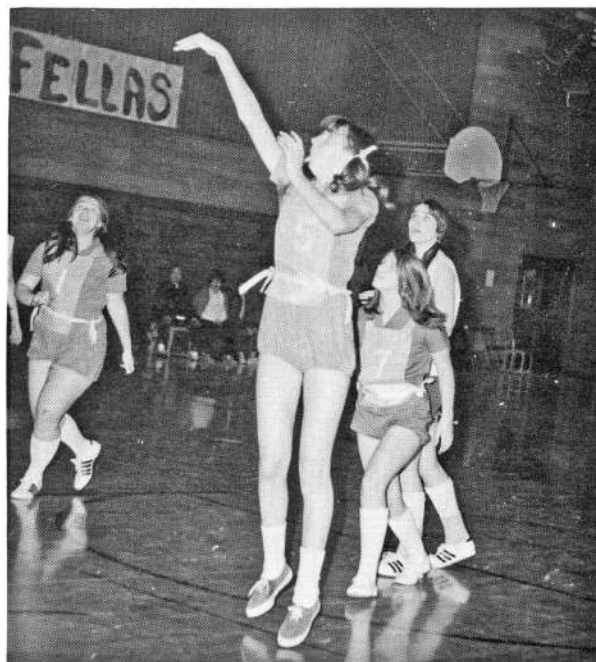

BASKETBALL

The junior varsity team was made up of Linda Moore, Linda Cobb, Sandy Keeler, Georgia Mayea, Kathy Price, and Betty Gehrke.

Lois Lang catches the ball on a rebound, while Patti McKenzie shoots one-up. Cathy Tucker waits for the rebound while Kathy Aldropp and Dyan Colven wait patiently for their turn.

Teri Harrington puts up a shot to the astonishment of the opponents. Sandy Keeler is preparing to go in for the rebound while Cathy Tucker is looking pleased with the results.

Cathy Tucker gets off a shot during a Powers game. Toni and Teri Harrington are moving up each side of the court to assist Cathy. Powers was Pacific's most evenly matched opponents, and they split a pair of games with them.

TRACK TEAM HAS GOOD YEAR

Cathy Tucker puts the shot with amazing force.

Janell Wilcox and Paula Roberts work with the hurdles to obtain better form and control.

The track team decided to take a little time out from work to rest on the high jump bags. Paula Roberts, Diane Haga, Cathy Tucker, Debbie Smith, Lois Lang, Leta Moore, Carol Tope, Mrs. Miller, Linda Moore, Karen Aldropp, and Janell Wilcox usually worked very hard, however. The results showed up in District and State competition.

Carol Tope demonstrates the running ability that helped the 440 relay team to place sixth in state.

Coach Miller is preparing to time some runners. She encouraged the girls to work hard in practice.

Lois Lang is up like a frog and over she goes, easily clearing the high jump bar.

FOOTBALL 1970-71

Although the spirit at the start of the football season was looking up, the games did not fare too well. The year before was the best pacific had ever had and the team was looking for a good season in 1970. What happened is hard to say. It may have been that the first few games made our spirit decline. We excelled this year in effort, though not in winning scores.

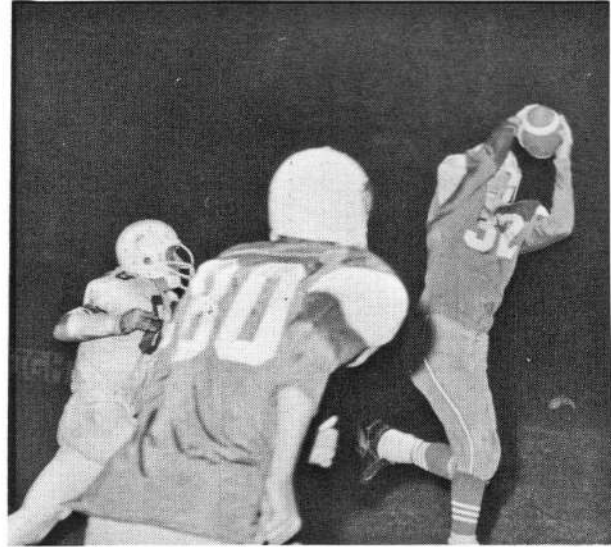

A Pacific player, number 81, rushes in to help his team mates tackle the opponent player.

Mr. Hoover instructs Ralph Cope (83) and Jim Samudio (72) as Mr. Nokes keeps an eye on the play.

Pirate spirit was at a very high peak during the season. The home games were well attended and a rooters bus was sent to almost every away game. This was a season of great pride in our school.
