WHAT IT IS LIKE TO BE A TEACHER

Being a teacher at Pacific High School can be quite an experience. Holding the title of teacher means you have to hold yourself up as an authority figure and disciplinarian but at the same time not being a dictator. But this year there was an added challenge- trying to teach without your own permanent classroom. Many teachers were shifted from room to room and many found themselves without heat, clocks, pencil sharpeners, chalkboards, and many other teaching materials which were stored away and never found again. This added challenge along with the usual problems of being a teacher led to feelings of possible nervous breakdowns. Teachers found themselves chewing out the wrong students, losing their sense of humor, and even one teacher locked his keys in the car while it was running. The teachers here at Pacific somehow overcame these dilemmas and succeeded in their jobs which is educating the students.

BOARD KEEPS THREE SCHOOL SYSTEM

District 2CJ School board members, facing the camera, left to right, at their February meeting: Mrs. Mary Lee, Mr. Bob Sapp, Mr. Dennis Cassel, Chairman; Mrs. Mary Yoder, and Mrs. Marilyn Haga. Not pictured are Mrs. Marilyn Cuthbert and Mr. Scott McKenzie. Below, school board chairman Mr. Cassel.

On Tuesday, January 7, the school board decided to not change from the present three-school organization of the district.

In summary, the board voted to move the students from the Blanco Junior High to the former grade school building in Langlois. The elementary building in Port Orford will continue to house the first five grades plus kindergarten. Pacific High School will continue to house the upper four grades. The present junior high and the surrounding acreage will be sold.

The board has spent much time and energy in mapping the district's future. An election in May will decide if we adopt a modern tax base.

Meanwhile, the high school is finally back in shape after the fire in May of '87. The people of the district seem to be working more closely together now than they have in recent years.

We salute you for your efforts and for your dedication for public education.

BUILDING A FOUNDATION

For the second year I am truly impressed with the outstanding young people of Pacific High School. Indeed you continue to do great things with enthusiasm and vigor. Many of you set high goals for yourself and take advantage of every opportunity to build a solid foundation for your future. Success will not come from wishing alone. Planning, persistence, and a burning desire will. Success is an attitude. Get yours right!

MAKING IT ON THEIR OWN

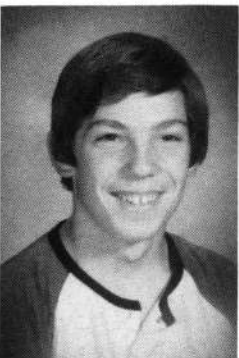

This year's freshmen class has only 26 students in it. This is the fewest students ever to be in a class at Pacific High. When asked what being a freshmen was all about, many people were dumbfounded. Answers like "neat" or "boring" were what most people answered. One person in particular didn't really know what to think, for he answered, "I still can't figure out why people always pick on me." When asked the teachers what they thought about freshmen, many couldn't answer. One teacher said, "Step a little closer and ask." We also asked what the upper-class thought. The results to this were unpleasant. A senior girl said, "I hate them because they always run into me in the hallway." Another said, "Next time I catch one in the Senior and Junior bathroom they will be sorry" Welcome to Pacific High.

"J.J." has a winning smile.

Being a Sophomore means different things to different people, so the answer to the question depends on who you ask. There are some minor things such as more complicated homework. But the sophomore year is actually a peaceful growing time between the frustrations of being a Freshman and the uncertainty of being a Junior.

The things all have in common putting on the Sadie Hawkins Dance and having the same required classes such as English 2 and Personal Finance. No one can really answer the questions. We'll all have our good times and bad. We are looking forward to the next two years. Maybe being a sophomore means being a "Perfect 10."

COMPETES AT STATE

PHS BOYS ARE FIRST IN STATE

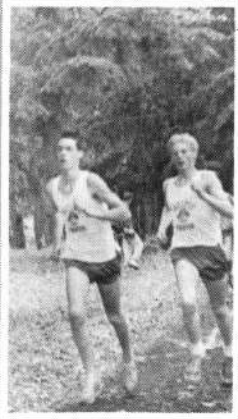

Above: Coach Moore discusses his strategy for District.

SUMMING UP THE SEASON

Shawn Heagle and Wendee Smith congratulate each other after their team took first in District.

Ian Osborne and Cody Neely pushed each other the whole season.

Paul Sabin and Andy Ells both competed well.

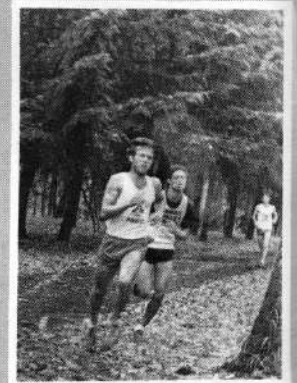

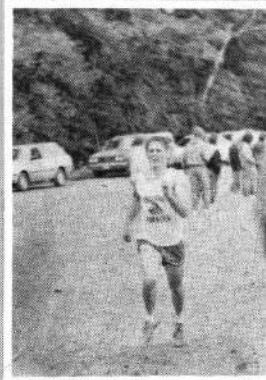

During this season, the boys' team went undefeated against all Class A schools and placed high in all of their meets. Even the junior varsity team defeated most of the other schools Class A varsity teams. The girls' and boys' varsity and the junior varsity went to District and all three teams took first place which qualified both varsity teams for State, where they competed extremely well.

This was truly a story book ending for the Pirates Cross-Country season. Not only did both the boys and the girls take first in district, the girls placed 9th in State and the boys earned the right to be called the State Champions. This was the first time any boys' team from Pacific has ever won a State Championship in any sport.

The team takes a break between races.

Able Creson helped the team immensely.

Juston Potter lead his team to the State Meet.

VARSITY BUILDS EXPERIENCE

Under first year coach Debbie Rooks, the varsity netters finished with a 4-8 league record and a 4-12 overall record.

The Pirates finished sixth in the Big Fir League over Riddle beating every team except league champion North Douglas and runner-up Oakland. Pacific missed a chance at the league playoffs by losing a coin toss to St. Mary's.

Junior Cheryl Shepherd was selected second team All Big Fir and Junior Shawn Heagle was an honorable-mention pick.

Two school records were broken during the season. Cheryl Shepherd and Junior Lisa Hensley set records for spikes and ace serves respectively.

Darisa Robison (5) goes for a bump against North Douglas while Shelly Bodfield, Lisa Lee, and Lisa Hensley look on.

JV LAYS FOUNDATION

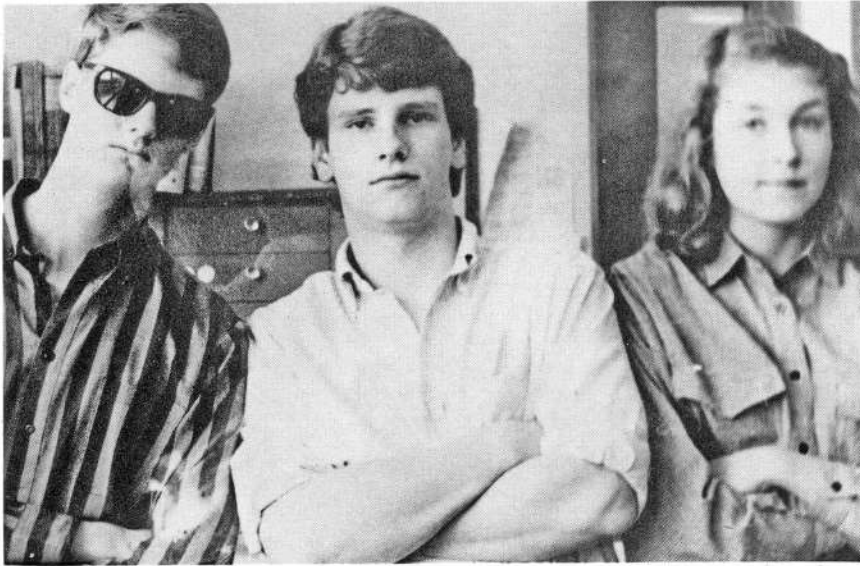

Stephanie Smith returns a serve while Sondra Robison, Becky Rosenberry and Dena Owens get ready to help.

Six junior varsity volleyball players, Stephanie Smith, Shirley Norris, Dena Owens, Sondra Robison, Becky Rosenberry, Bobbi Sheffield, and Martina McKenzie, lay the foundation as future contenders in the Big Fir League. Although they were small in numbers, they were big in spirit for second year Coach Mary Strain.

Though they didn't have a winning record, they proved to be competitive in all of their games.

COUNCIL BUILDS LEADERSHIP

This year's Student Council has been quite active. They were involved in many activities including holding a "Welcome Back" Dance, and an extremely successful Pirate Jam. They also planned on giving financial support to the '87-'88 annual and Cheryl Shepherd for her volleyball trip to Hong Kong, and putting a Pacific Pirates sign on the school's front lawn.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Mrs. Johnson, Director of the Common Good, is receiving the cans that the NHS gained from the canned food drive.

This years N.H.S. has been involved in community service projects such as the canned food drive for the Common Good. Members visited the Elementary School during December and sang Christmas carols for the little tykes.

One of the fundraisers involved the students in a computer dating service. Questionnaires were filled out and students were matched based on their answers, using Mr. Young's computer.

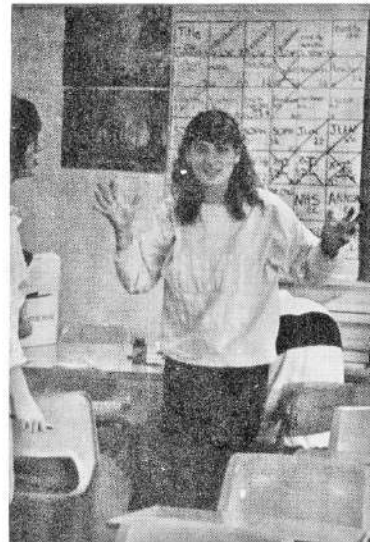

NHS officers are Nate Radcliffe-President; Ray Pretti-Vice-President; Bruce Smith-Secretary; and Justine Hill-Fundraising Chairman. The NHS advisor is Mr. Bures.

BUILDING A PUBLICATION

"Get to work! There's all this work to do and nobody's doing anything."

A BIG JOB FOR ANNUAL CLASS

The annual class is charged with doing a history of the school each year. This production involves countless frustrations, endless deadlines, frequent rescheduling of pictures, much changing of the ladder, diagram, and frequent conferences with publisher and studio.

The most time-consuming aspect of yearbook production is the writing of copy, the proof-reading, the counting out of copy and the typing and proof-reading of copy. Despite our best efforts, an occasional error creeps in.

Yearbooks are labor intensive and have a high-frustration threshold. Everyone has to be photographed sixteen times because of picture-taking mistakes or darkroom goofs. Facts have to be double-checked. Weird names are a special problem, as are uncooperative people. Somehow, though, we survived and occasionally even enjoyed our work.

A yearbook is a special labor of love to those of us who have worked on this yearbook. We hope you find a single remembrance of good times in this volume. If you do, our labors will not have been in vain.

BASKETBALL

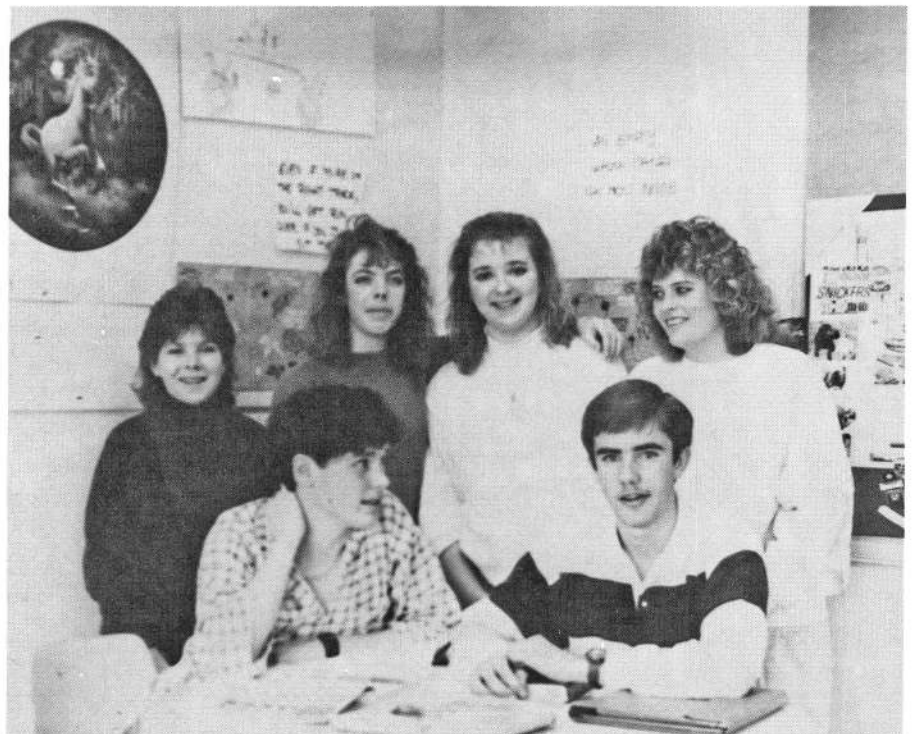

On Saturday, January 16, the Pirates traveled to Glendale for their third league game of the season. The Glendale Pirates were in for more than they bargained for. The girls' varsity played an excellent game, and the intensity and support from the boys' team was great. The score at half time was 24-9 in favor of Pacific. Though Pacific didn't outscore Glendale by as much in the second half, they managed to hang on to the lead and won 41-26. This was the first league win for the girls, they played North Douglas and St. Mary's the week before, which resulted in losses despite well-played games.

2ND SEMESTER JOURNALISTS

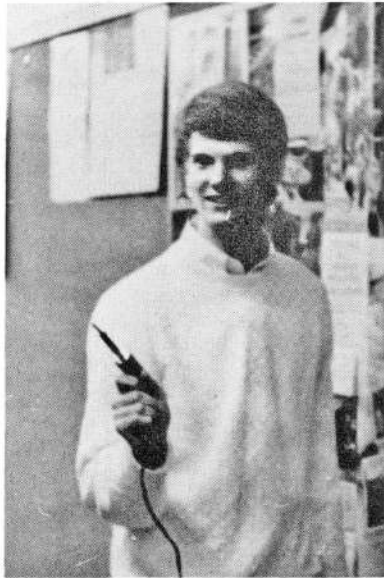

The Journalism class this year was reinstated at the semester with Mrs. Battle as their advisor. They changed the name of the paper back to the Pirates' Echo from last year's name of The Purple Press.

According to Mrs. Battle the first edition of the paper would come out about March 1. It was expected to contain mostly school news, with perhaps a sprinkling of stories and poems in some issues.

Class members are Marty Hayworth, Jennifer Kiernan, Chad Knight, Sylvia Lau, Suzanne Miller, Ginger Morill, Tonya Robison, and Stacy Wright.

HONOR ROLL BUILDS UP

The following is a list of those who made the first semester Honor Roll (GPA of 3.5 to 4.0). Freshmen: Debra McRae, Steve Smith. FBLA President, Dana Webb, has kept the group busy.

BUILDING MUSICAL EXPERIENCE

Michele Sordahl, a freshman, is also in chorus this year.

Ms. Lisa Helleman, Judi Wornell, Jane Martin, Marty Hayworth, Jim Wornell, Dana Wilson, Jack Martin, Jennifer Kiernan, and Bonita Zitzelberger practice for the Christmas concert.

Ms. Lisa Helleman instructs the choir.

This year eleven people were in chorus, five of whom were seniors, Bonita Zitzelberger, Leah Martin, Jim Wornell, Jane Martin, Dana Wilson, Jack Martin, Jennifer Kiernan, Judi Wornell, Marty Haworth, Ramie McDonald, and Michele Sordahl all worked very hard this year under second-year instructor Ms. Lisa Helleman.

They planned to have two concerts during the 87-88 school year-one at Christmas, on Dec. 18, and the end-of-the-year concert in June.

This year there was also an honor choir consisting of six students from Pacific High. They performed with representatives of other area high schools at Marshfield in Coos Bay on Feb. 8, 1988.

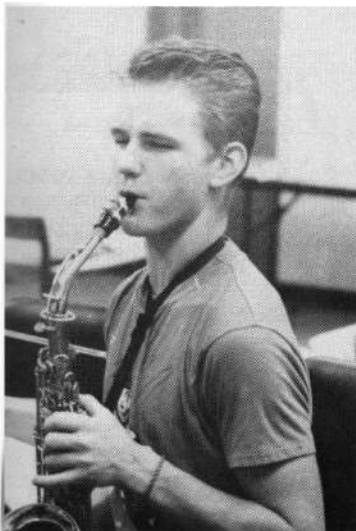

These people who attended were Jim Wornell, Leah Martin, Jane Martin, Jennifer Kiernan, Ramie McDonald, and Bonita Zitzelberger.

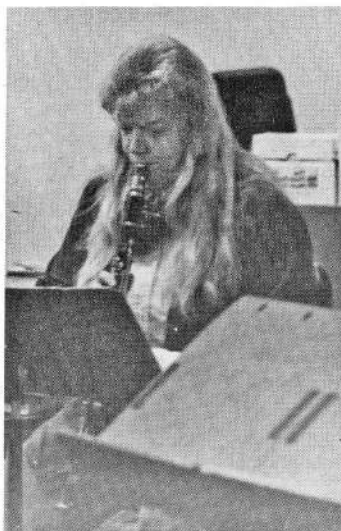

IN BAND AND CHORUS

Jason Stratton, Aram Boyd, Ramie McDonald, and Kim Gore listen and practice as Ms. Lisa Hellemn discussed the day's lesson.

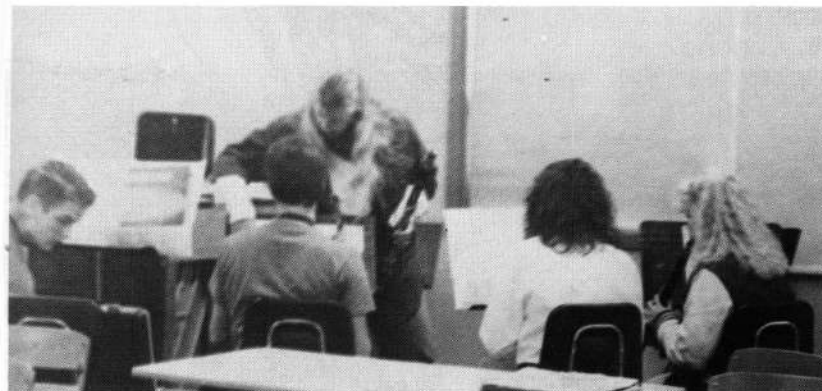

Jason Stratton, the only senior in band this year, plans to continue playing after high school.

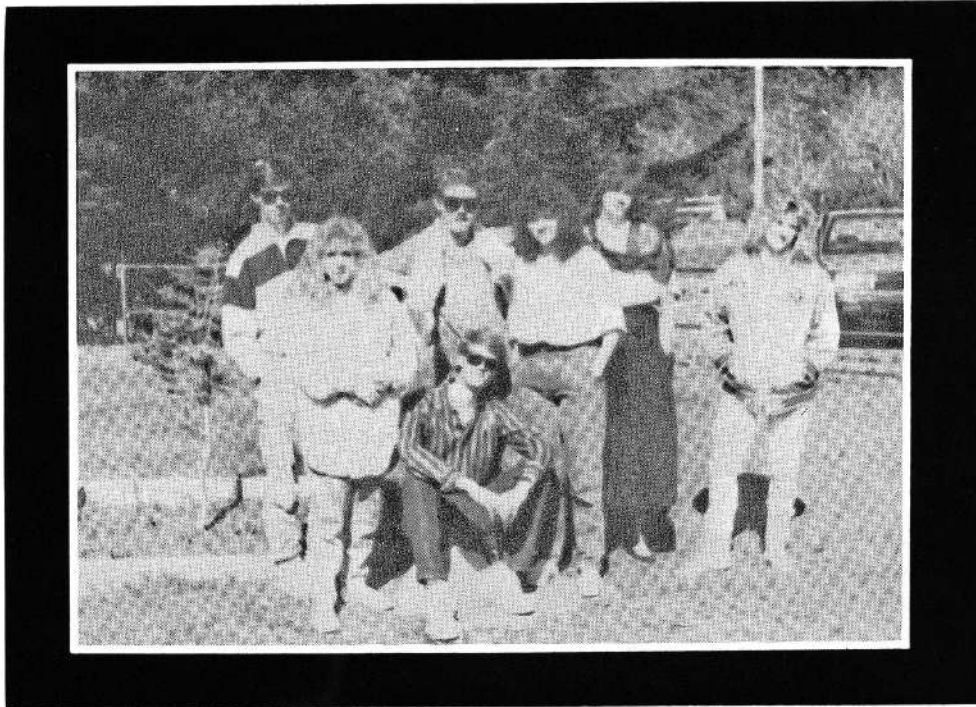

Lisa Hellemn has been Directing Pacific High's band for two years, and seems to enjoy it.

Ms. Hellemn gives Aram Boyd personal help as the rest of the band practices individually.

BUILDING ON A CONTROVERSY

This is the first year ever Pacific High School has ever competed in the Mock-Trial competition.

Under the leadership of Richard AuFranc, a local Port Orford lawyer, and Nicole Black, president and organizer of the Mock-Trial/debate team, the team won one out of the two trials they participated in.

The trials were held in Eugene March four and five and overall excellent performances were given by all.

The team was as follows: Nicole Black, lawyer; Jason Stratton, lawyer; Bruce Smith, witness/bailiff; Jane Martin, witness/bailiff; Justine Hill, witness; Elizabeth Hoewing, witness; Lisa Long, witness; and Marty Hayworth, witness.

BUILDING SKILLS AT S.W.O.C.C.

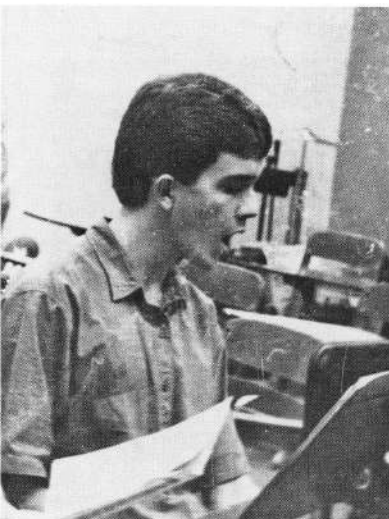

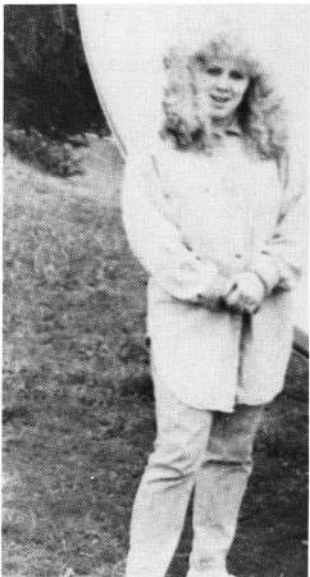

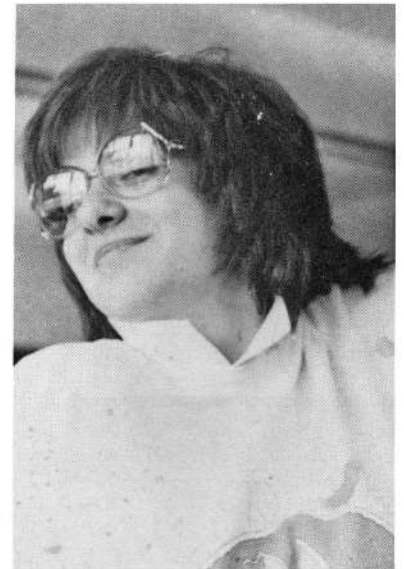

PHS students place well at Skills Day

Pacific high school students competed with students from Reedsport, Marshfield, North Bend, Bandon, Gold Beach, Myrtle Point, Brookings and Powers February 25, at Southwestern Oregon Community College Skills Day in Coos Bay. They also walked away with an impressive number of places, said a school spokesperson.

Placing fourth in English and spelling was senior James Wornell; personal finance/economics, third place went to Martina McKenzie, a sophomore; job interview, tied for fourth, Bonita Zitzelberger, senior; typing I, fifth place, Kim Gore, grade 10; home ec/main dish, first place, Wendy Smith, grade 10, second place, Bill Keeler, senior, sixth place, Tricia Linder, freshman.

Home Ec/teen snacks, sixth place, Shauna Nicholson, 11th grade, ninth place, Wendy Smith, 10th grade.

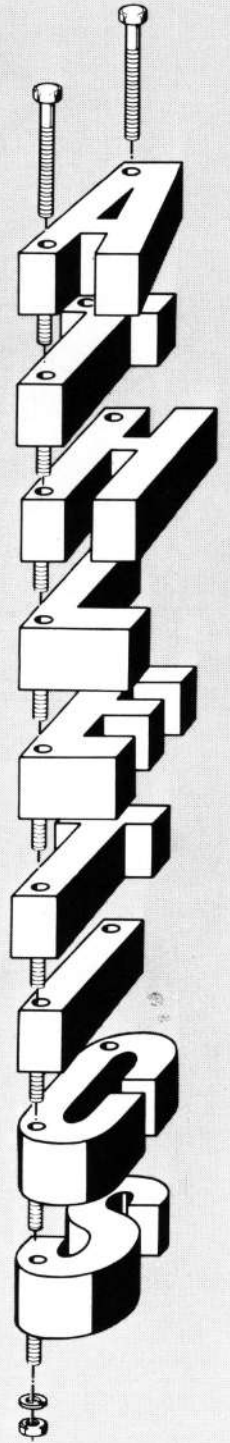

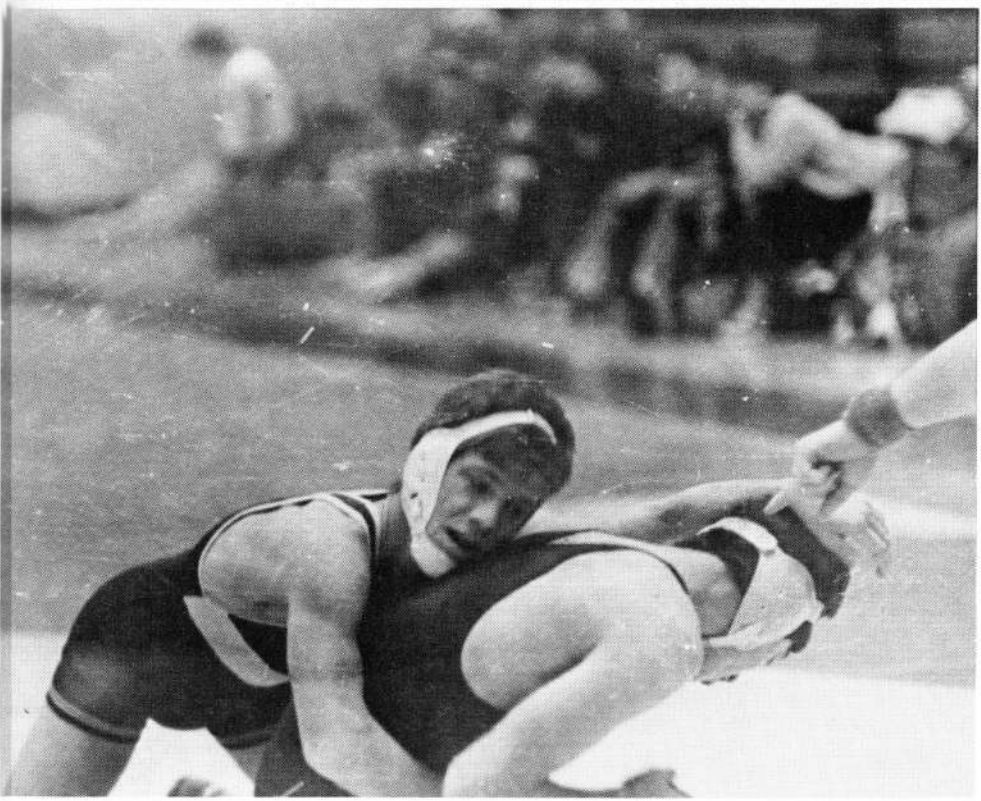

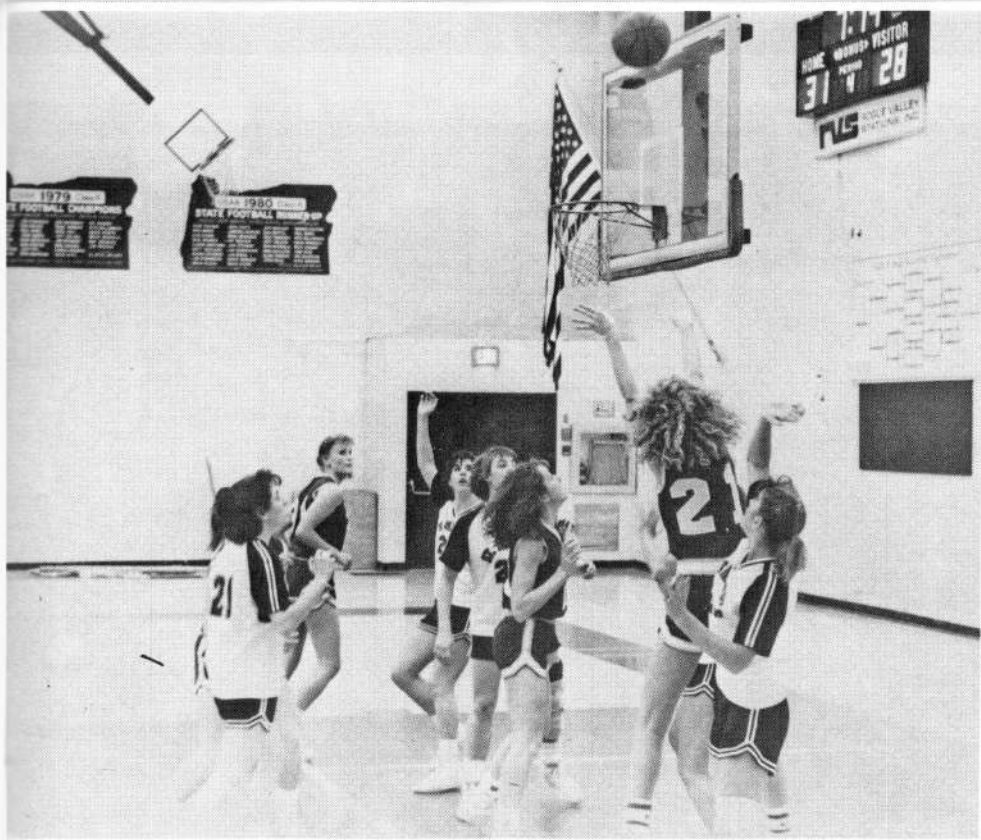

Welding—gas, 10th place to Franklin Waterman, freshman; GMAW, fourth place, Don Yardley, freshman, seventh place, Franklin Waterman, freshman; GTAW, fourth place, Brian Tenney, freshman.

VARSITY GIRLS

First year coach Debbie Rooks took the varsity girls to a 2-10 league finish and a 5-14 overall record with victories over Powers twice, Cascade Christian, and Glendale twice. The lady Pirates finished sixth in the Big Fir League over Glendale, a place better than last year's seventh place finish. But the Pirates build potential for next year as they only lose two seniors.

Teammates congratulate Tonya Robison for a successful free throw while the bench looks on.

BUILT A GOOD SEASON

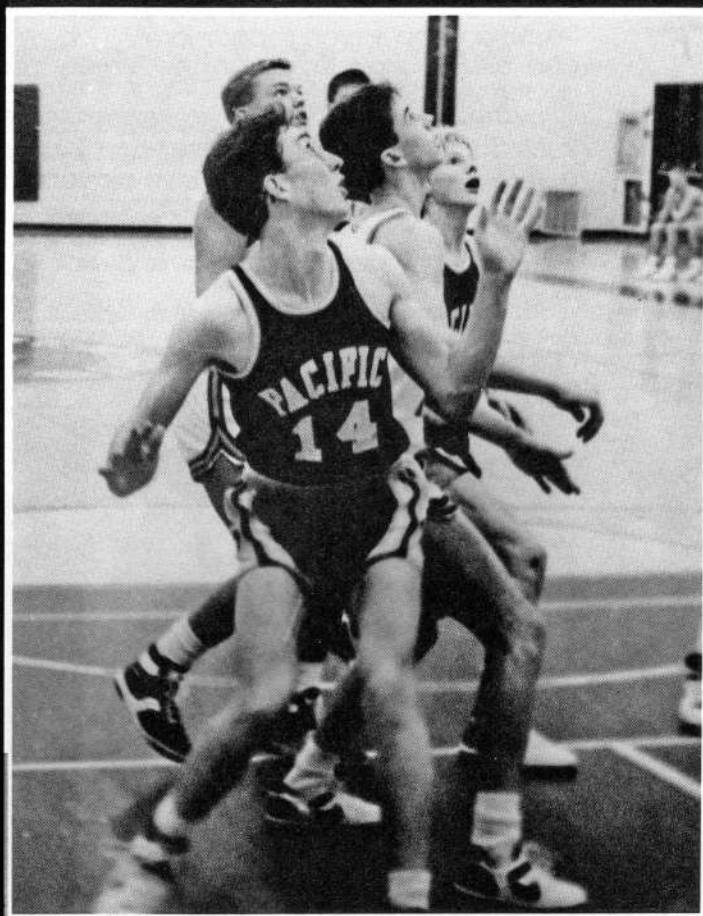

Ray Pretti makes a field goal.

Once again, Duane Londagin takes another shot.

The Varsity team was coached by Lee Pestana and had a pretty good season which ended with a record of 6 wins and 12 losses.

The team started the season slowly but improved their record as the season went on. They wound up winning three league games which made them fourth in the league and sent them to the league playoffs. Unfortunately, their first league game didn't turn out to be very good and they lost to Riddle by fourteen points.

Ray Pretti and Cody Neely power their way in for the rebound.

GIRLS' J.V. BASKETBALL

This year's J.V. team consists of eleven girls: Four freshmen and seven sophomores. Two girls, Shirley and Laura, also played on the Varsity team. The coach was Diana Neely.

The record over the long season was 6 and 7. Jacinda Swigart, Shirley Norris, and Becky Rosenberry were the leading offensive players. They had a very good season. Good Job!

Laura skies to recover the ball.

BOYS' J.V. BASKETBALL

This year's J.V. basketball team consisted of good but inexperienced players. This season they won 5 games and lost 11. Coach Farmer is predicting a much better team next year, which will consist of the same players as this years. Good luck next year, Guys.

Pictured at left: Steve Smith shows his stuff with his famous hook shot. Pictured at right: Leo Marshall, number 12, goes in for the rebound.

WRESTLERS BUILD UP STAMINA!

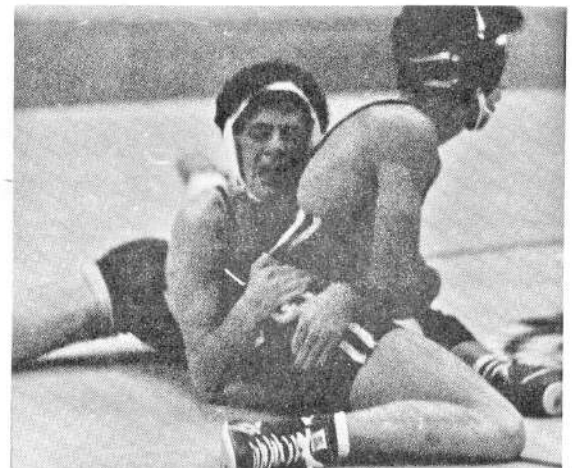

Abram Martin looks surprised as his opponent gets the upper hand.

The 1988 Pirate wrestlers, under the new head coach Tim Carver, participated in ten meets, ranging from the Glendale Invitational to open the season, to the District meet at Lowell High School, which closed the regular season.

A typical practice for wrestling might include stretching exercises, running, tumbling, and going over moves. Then they often broke in to groups of three to wrestle for 6 minutes. This wind exercise extended wrestlers stamina.

The team members were Bill Keeler, Gabe Hill, Paul Conner, Carl Hensley, Abble Creason, Alan Heckard, Dan Martin, Chris Sypher, Jake Lang, Travis Hogue, John Denney, and Dalton Winchester.

Paul Conner took first place at district and fourth place at state. (See accompanying article.)

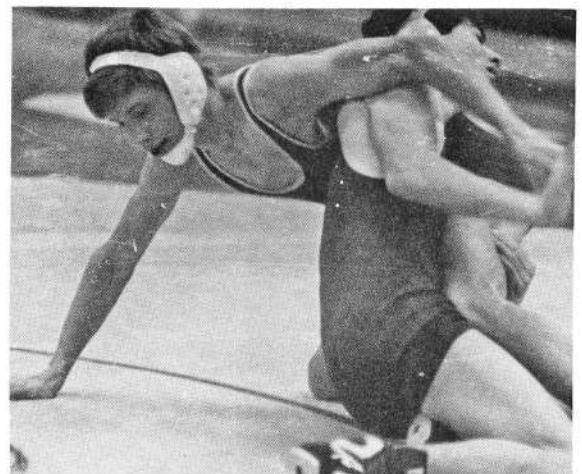

Abble Creason gives his all.

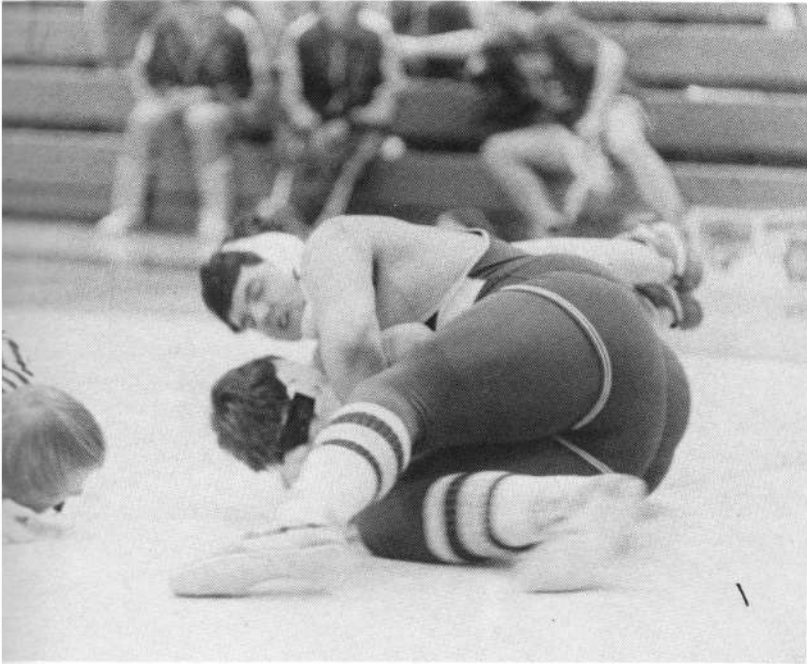

Alan Heckard struggles for a Pirate victory.

Jake Lang fights to keep his balance.

PAUL PLACES AT STATE!

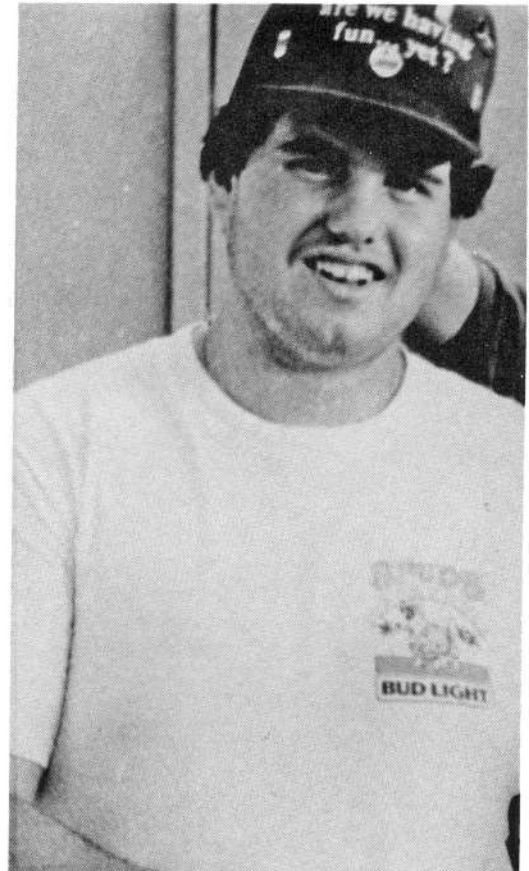

Paul Conner, one of Pacific High's very own wrestlers, placed fourth this year at state wrestling championships.

Paul won two of four matches at the state tournament held on February 26 and 27.

When asked what he thought of going to State overall, he replied, "It was a very bruising experience."

Congratulations Paul, we're proud of you!

Building spirit at P.H.S. was the job of the junior varsity and varsity rally. Each game the J.V. and Varsity cheerleaders fired up the crowd with their various stunts and cheers.

With the help of advisor Donna Zitzelberger, the cheerleaders raised money by selling hot dogs, putting on the annual Powder Puff football game, and a car wash that the Junior Varsity held.

Jason Stratton takes a shot during Homecoming Game.

Charlene Norris and Nate Radcliffe were chosen as Homecoming Queen and King.

Like the years before, Homecoming '88 was full of many crazy activities. Every day was a different adventure.

On Monday, we donned shorts and tank-tops for Hawaiian day. The day's activity was the string key pass.

On Tuesday, we dressed for mafia day (hat and glasses). The activity was the jelly bean pie.

Wednesday was toga day. The highlight of the week's activities was the tug-of-war. The Senior girls challenged, and as a group, beat everyone they were up against including the Freshman boys.

Thursday there was no school.

Friday was pajama day, and the activity was water gun shave.

Other activities were the Pirate jam and the Homecoming dance.

This year's Jam was more successful than last years. There were five acts performing various types of music that ranged from the '60s to the modern heavy metal craze.

BUILDING TO

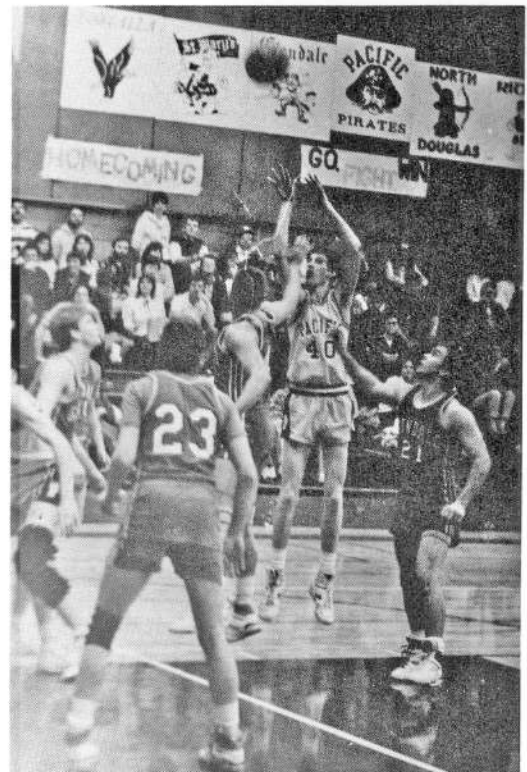

Varsity Cheerleaders Sherry Forty, Lacey Nicholson, Bonita Zitzelberger, Kim Gore, and Julie Lorentzen performed their dance routine for the crowd.

For these activities, a number of points was given. At the end of the week these points were totaled and the Seniors and Juniors tied for 1st place with 140 pts. each. The Sophomore class was third and the Freshman were fourth.

Friday night the Pirates played Glendale in the Homecoming game. The guys had an impressive win of 69-37. The girls also won their game with a score of 38-30. During the half time of the guy's game, the Homecoming court was announced. The couples were Jim Wornell and Bonita Zitzelberger, Wyn Knight and Justine Hill, Nate Radcliffe and Tonya Robison, Jason Stratton and Niki Black, Bill Keeler and Leah Martin, and Bruce Smith and Charlene Norris. Nate Radcliffe and Charlene Norris were King and Queen.

After the game came the long-awaited Homecoming dance. KXGO provided the music. There was also a free album, hat, and t-shirt giveaway.

The 1988 Pacific High School baseball team started out this year full of enthusiasm, and a terrific season is expected from them.

The team members are as follows: Franklin Waterman, Jim Perdue, Brian Lawrence, Cody Neely, Steve Smith, Debra McCrae, Chris Marsh, Joe Bess, Elisa Villegas, John Owens, Jake Lang, Tom Henderson, John Denney, Bill Keeler, Carl Hensley, and Angelique Boyce. The team managers were Sondra Robison and Kerry Nordstrom.

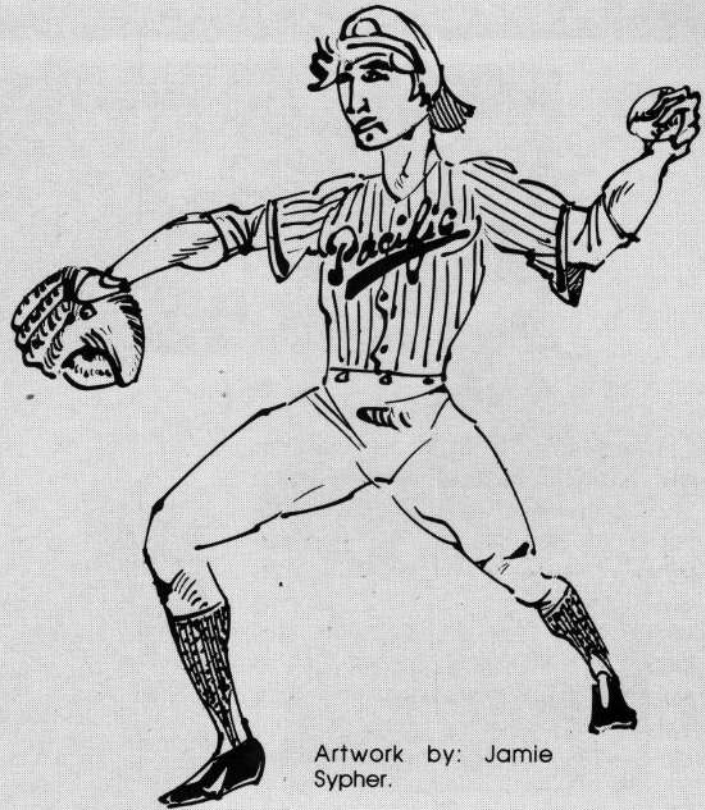

The head coach, Frank Neely.

BUILDING UP

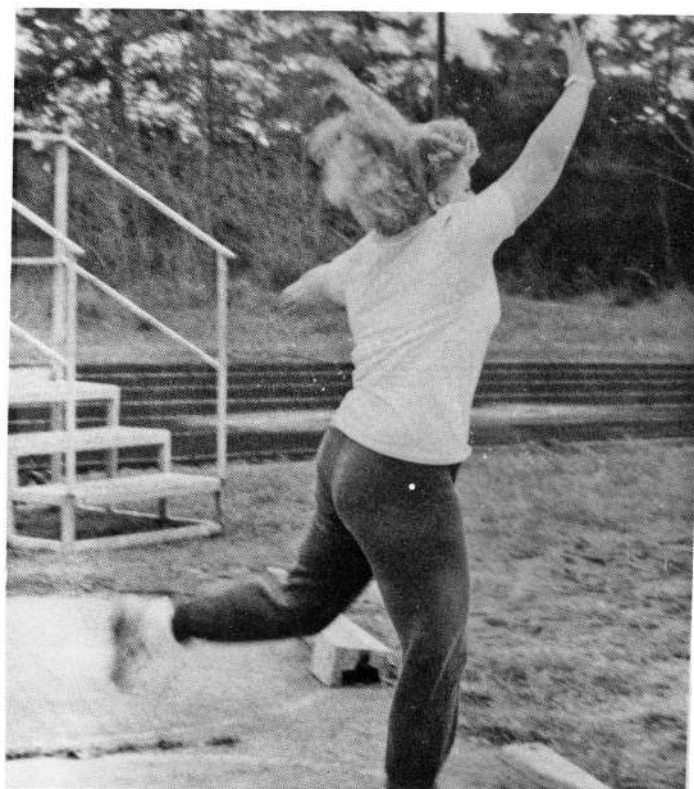

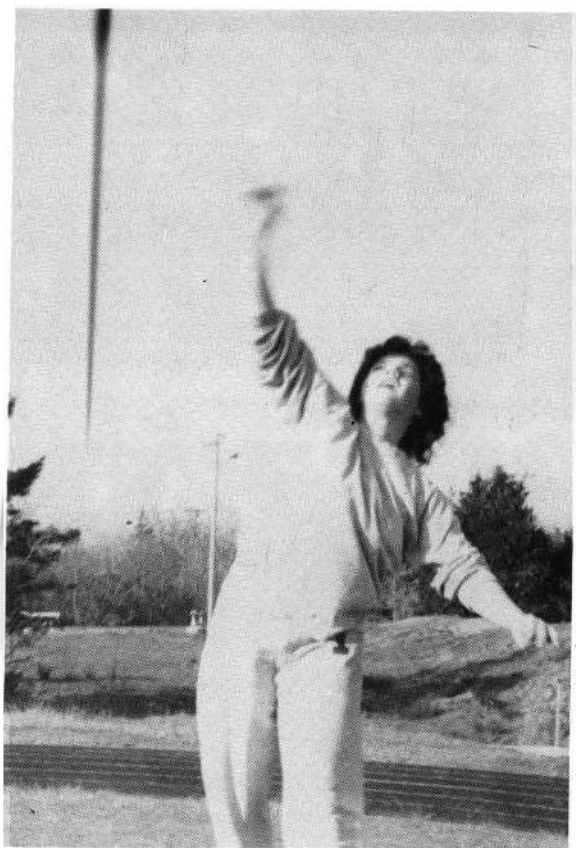

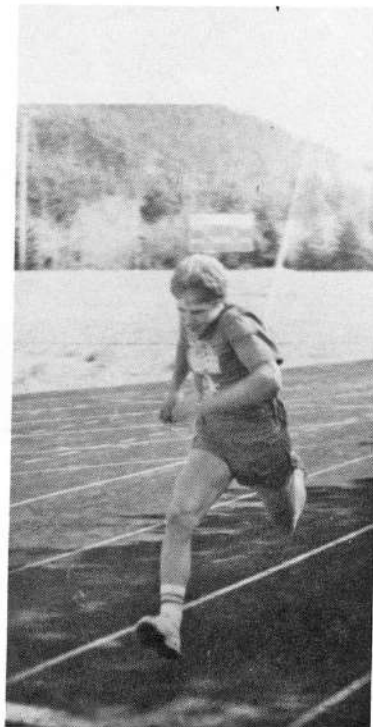

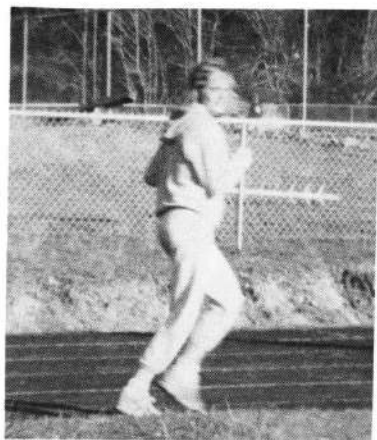

TRACK

This year's track team had an outstanding season. Junior Cheryl Shepherd and Senior Jason Stratton led the team to league where they were expected to do well. Mr. Kistner and Mr. Moore were very impressed with the progress of the team during the season. The team only lost four seniors so they are expected to do well next year.

CHAMPIONS

GOLF TEAM IMPROVES IN '88

Lisa Long, Lisa Hensley, Elizabeth Hoewing, Andy Ells, Justine Hill, Niki Black, and Shon Cook are out this year. Martina McKenzie and Chris Sypher (not pictured) are also out.

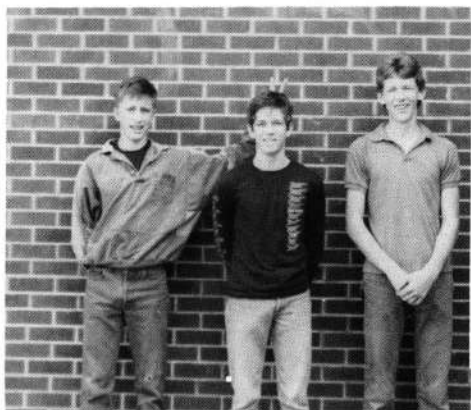

Niki Black and Justine Hill are the only seniors out this year.

This year's golf team consists of nine members: Niki Black, Justine Hill, Lisa Hensley, Elizabeth Hoewing, Martina McKenzie, Lisa Long, Andy Ells, Chris Sypher, and Shon Cook.

Every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday they went down to Cedar Bend Golf Course from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. for practice.

In his 5th year of voluntarily coaching golf, Donn Merrick continues to encourage and give pointers to the team members. The team, as a whole, has greatly improved from last year, and as we went to press, they were hoping for a successful season.

Andy Ells, Chris Sypher, and Shon Cook make up the boys' team this year.

"Love Walks In"

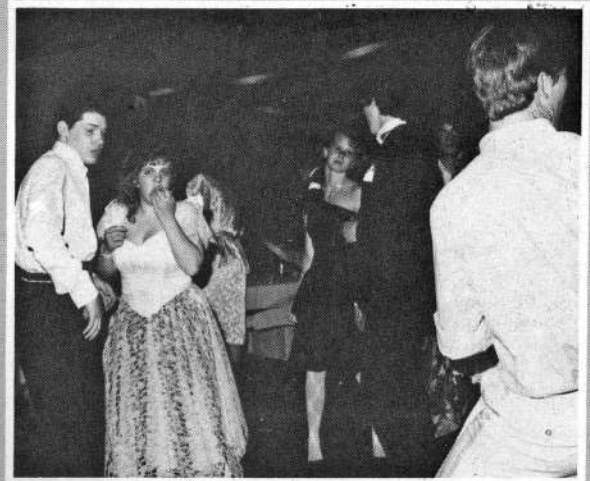

Sherry Forty, Melisa Mayea, and Ray Pretti get into the festivities.

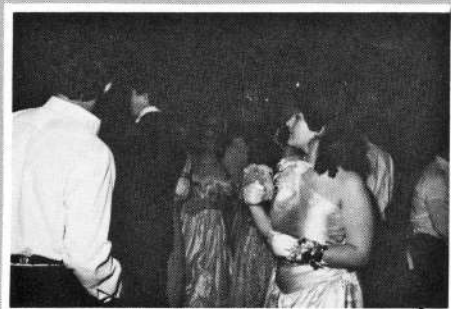

Bruce Smith and Charlene Norris show off their dancing skills.

The Geeks, the evening's band, kept the hits coming all night long.

William Brotton and Tammy Potter watch from the side as everyone "boogies"

Alan Heckard and Jessica Montgomery enjoy the prom in the best way they know how ... dancing!

Ronda Carlson is captured on film during one of her many enjoyable moments.

Prom 1988

The 1988 Prom Court: Bruce Smith and Justine Hill; Charlene Norris and Nate Radcliffe; Bonita Zitzelberger and Ray Pretti; Juston Potter and Tonya Robison; and Leah Martin and Bill Keeler.

This year the prom was held at Jot's Resort in Gold Beach on April 30, 1988. For the first time in several years, the school board gave its approval to have the Prom off campus.

The theme of the prom was "Love Walks In". The colors were black and pink. The prom had a live band for the first time in recent history.

Each couple paid $25.00 for the invitations. For that price, the couples received a choice of two dinner entrees and admission to the dance.

During the dance Tonya Robison was crowned Queen and Juston Potter was crowned King. They were crowned by Melissa Mayea and Lisa Hensley respectively.

Chaperones for the dance which lasted from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. were Mr. Romney, Ms. Rooks, Mr. Flake and their spouses or dates.

Thank you, Prom Committee for your hard work in planning the event.

King Juston and Queen Tonya are all smiles for the camera.

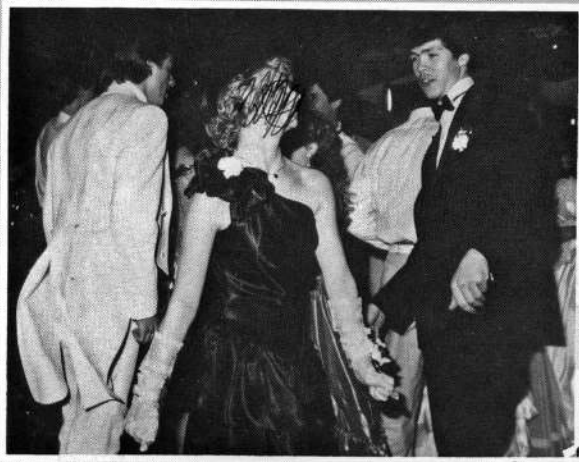

A BLACK TIE AFFAIR!

Chaperone Tim Flake takes invitations from Lisa Hensley and Darisa Robison.

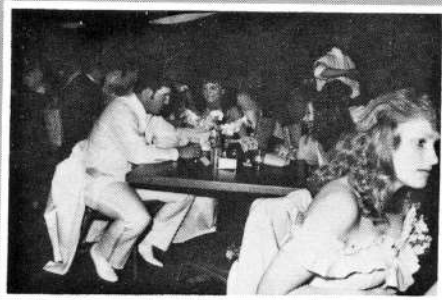

Alan Heckard and Jacinda Swigart take a break from dancing.

Jack Martin and his date dance the night away.

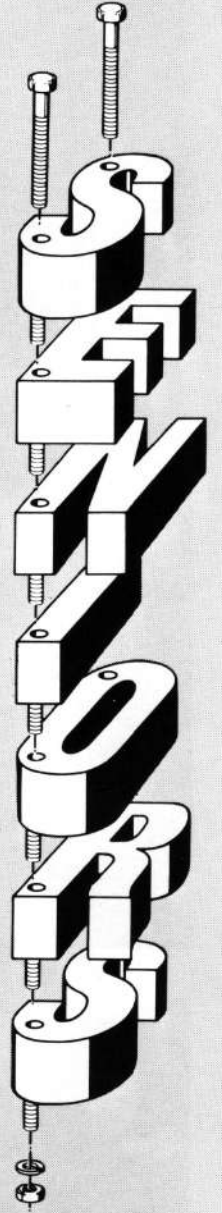

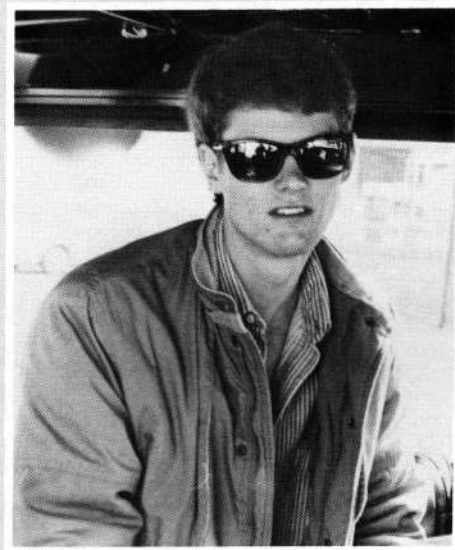

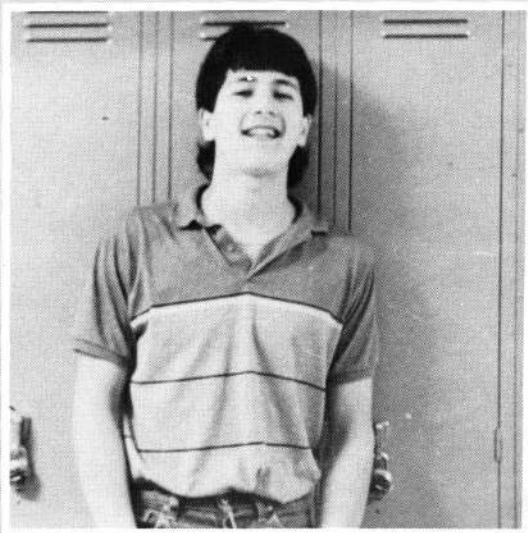

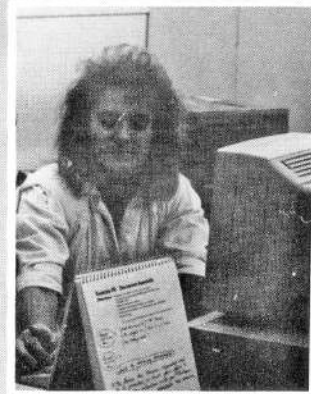

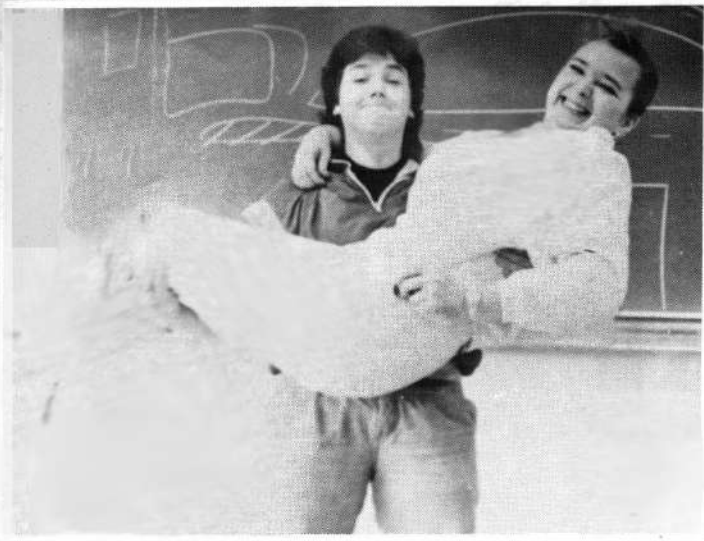

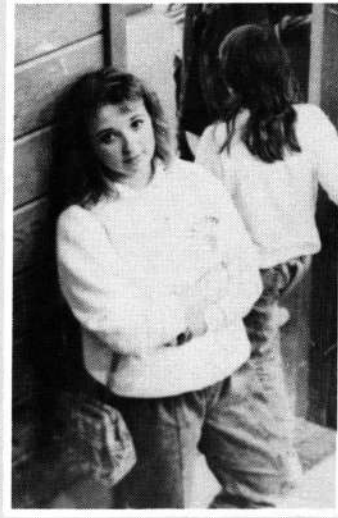

Chaperones Becky Flake, Cathy Romney, and Jim Romney relax.

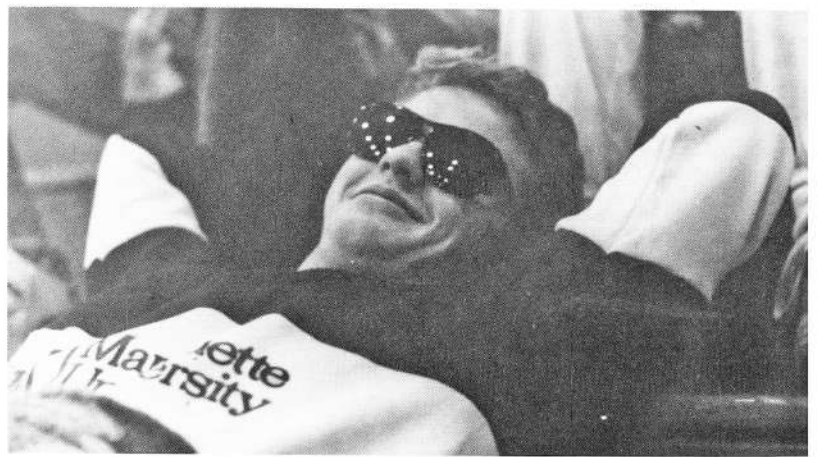

Shelly Bodfield and her date; Tonya Robison and Shirley Norris wait for their meal.

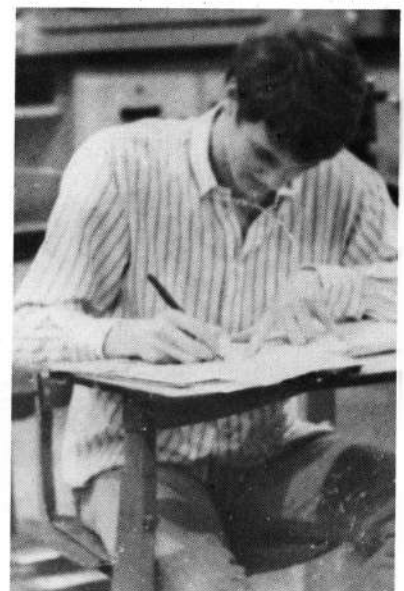

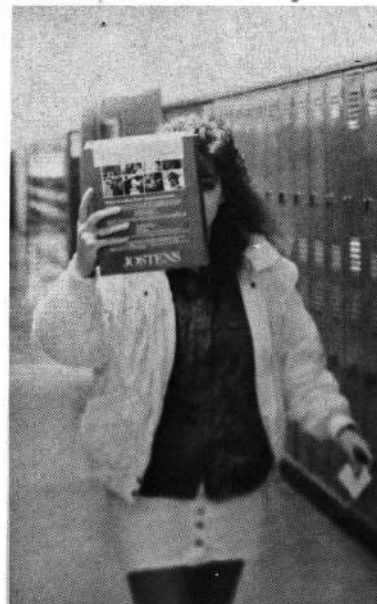

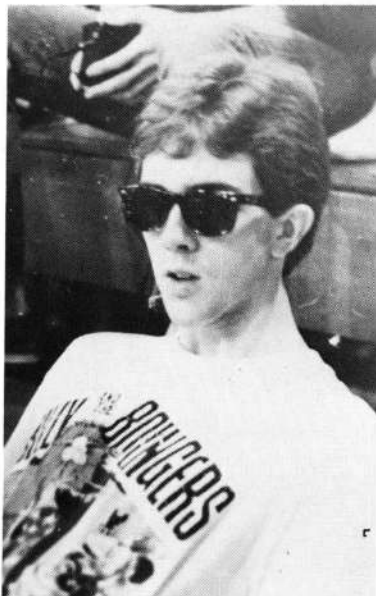

Stephanie Rossi and her date have a great time at prom.

TONYA: "I did it my way!"

TAMMY: "Most of us know how to say nothing; few of us know when."

JUSTON: "A real athlete that can't be beat - and had a lot of fun"

TOM: "Women and dogs just naturally love him."

NIKI: "She was a professional athlete - of the tongue."

JAMIE: "One learns to keep quiet in life and draw one's own confusions."

WILLIAM: "A gunman walked up to the cashier of a movie house, stuck a gun in her face and growled "The picture was lousy! Give me everybody's money back!"

RONDA: "She flung herself upon her horse and rode madly off in all directions"

ALAN: "Why should our generation be expected to find and answer to problems that have endured throughout the centuries?"

PAUL: "Life is no longer if you hurry, no better if you worry."

PERCY: "The best way for a girl to keep a man at a distance is for her to chase him."

DANA: "Why is it a woman, who constantly complains that she has nothing to wear, has six closets to keep it in?"

JANE: "Still water runs deep."

TONY: "When you live it up at night, you've got to live it down in the morning."

CHARLENE: "Sports wouldn't be so bad if it did not require so much physical out put."

RAY: "God bless women - I love them all!"

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Jim Wornell - President
Leah Martin - Representative
Charlene Norris - Secretary/Treasurer
Justine Hill - Vice President

VALEDICTORIAN

This year's top student in the senior class is Nate Radcliffe. He has a 4.00 grade point average, and has especially excelled in math. Nate wants to be a math teacher when he graduates from Lewis and Clark College in Portland.

Among his activities and hobbies in high school, he lists: basketball, bike riding, and reading. He is the A.S.B. President, National Honor Society President, and the Homecoming King. He participated on the boys' varsity basketball team his junior year, and the j.v. team his freshmen and sophomore year.

Nate has an unusual sense of humor, is never at a loss for words and is guaranteed to liven up any class. Congratulations on being valedictorian and good luck in the future.

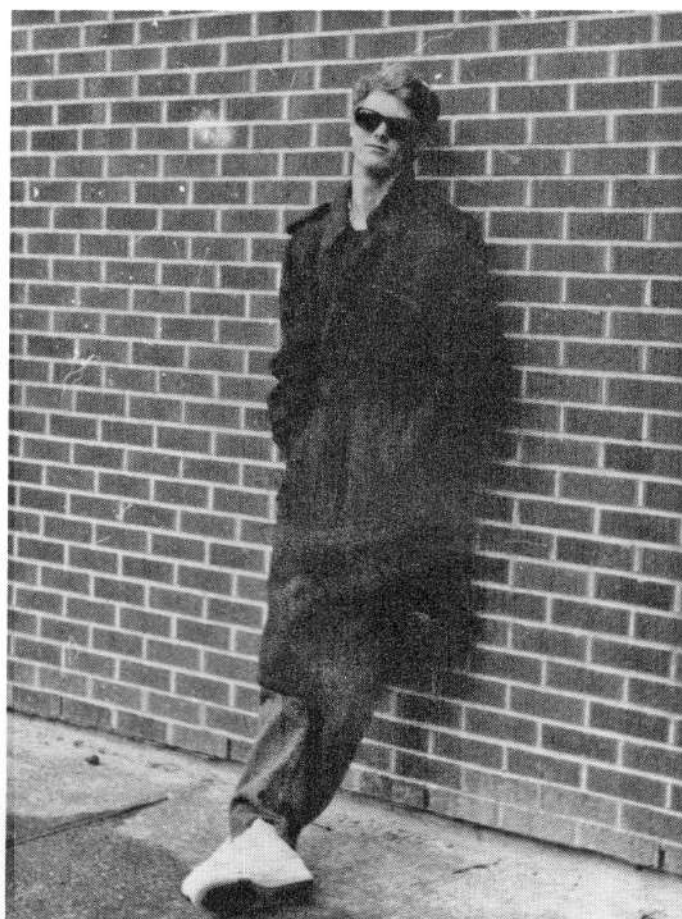

SALUTATORIAN

This year's salutatorian is Bruce Smith. Bruce has attended Pacific High School for all four years and plans to attend Oregon State University in Corvallis. He has a grade point average of 3.87.

Bruce likes rock climbing, traveling, weight lifting, playing guitar and piano, and "sleeping on his homework."

He has participated in track his freshmen and sophomore year, boys' j.v. basketball his first two years and varsity his third year. He was also on the boys' cross-country team his freshmen and junior year. He was an A.S.B. officer his senior year and the secretary of the school. He was also secretary of N.H.S.

Good luck, Bruce, and congratulations on your accomplishments.

GRADUATION 1988

On Friday, June 3, the Senior class of 1988 graduated in the P.H.S. gym.

This year's class, with 24 graduates, was the smallest to graduate in Pacific's history. Their theme was "Cherished Moments" and their motto was "Though we don't know where we're going, we'll cherish where we've been." The flower was a yellow rose, and the colors were purple, gold, and white.

This year's seating arrangement was different from the arrangement of previous years. The graduates were seated along the north wall instead of the east wall. The backdrop was decorated with yellow and white balloons.

The exercises began at 8:00 p.m. with the processional. "Pomp and Circumstance" was played by Diane Cassel. The welcome address was given by the class president, Jim Wornell. The invocation was given by the class representative, Leah Martin.

The salutatory address was given by Bruce Smith. Bonita Zitzelberger accompanied by her sister Brenda, sang "That's What Friends Are For." The valedictory address was given by Nathan Radcliffe. Mr. Tim Flake then gave the Commencement address.

Next came the Senior slide show. This showed the Seniors at some of their best and worst moments. Mr. and Mrs. Juston Potter then presented the awards and scholarships.

Mr. P. James Romne, the Superintendent-Principal, presented the class to the school board which was accepted by school board chairman, Mr. Dennis Cassel.

The class roll was then read by vice-president Justine Hill, and class secretary Charlene Norris. Mr. Jim Kistner and Mrs. Jean Samudio, with the help of Jennifer and Julie Lorentzen, presented the diplomas.

Mr. Dennis Cassel presented the class which was followed by the recessional to end the Commencement program.

The day's events began at 6:45 A.M. with a trip up the Rogue River on Jerry's jet boats. This was planned by the local Project Graduation Committee.

Project Graduation is a national organization that sponsor an all-night drug and alcohol-free party for graduating seniors.

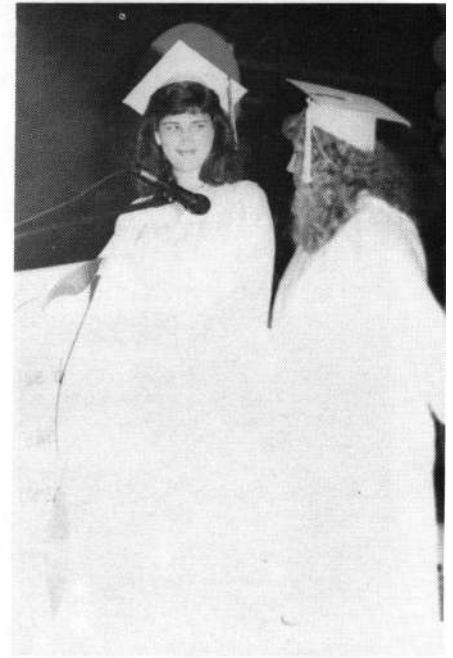

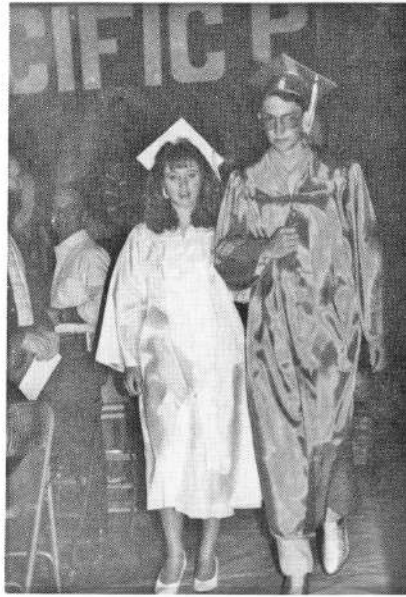

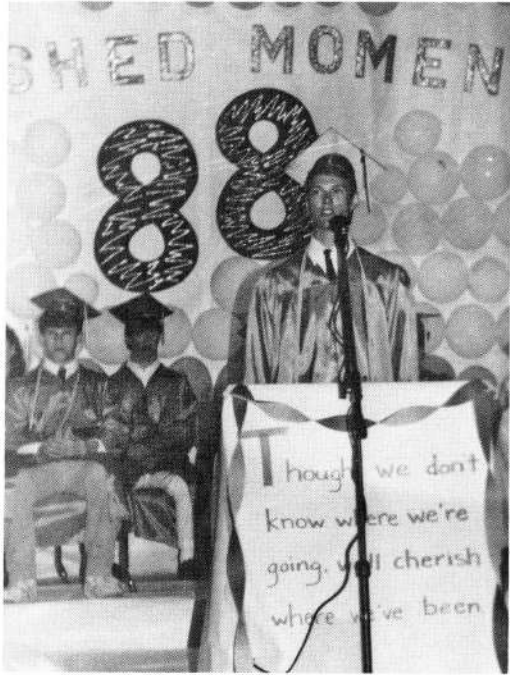

The class returned from the trip at 4:30 P.M. This time was used to get ready for graduation and to spend time with friends and family.

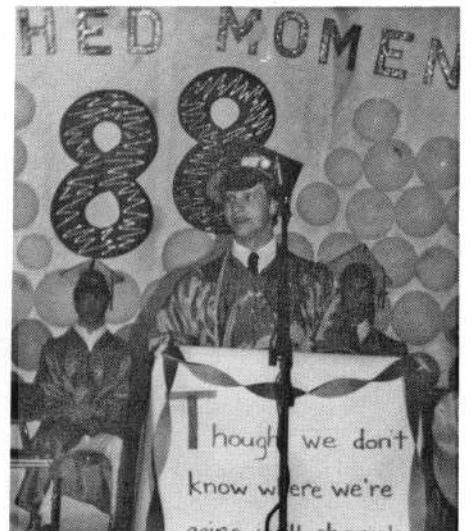

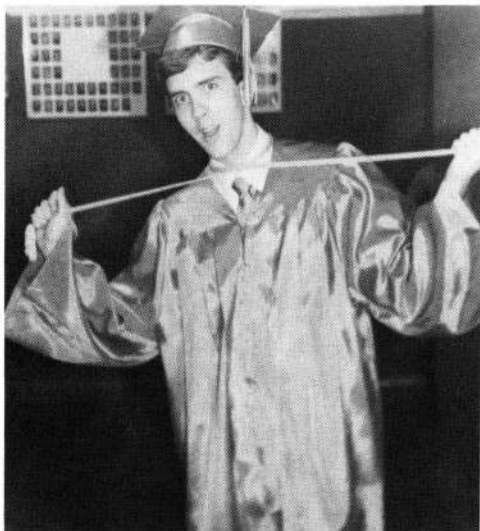

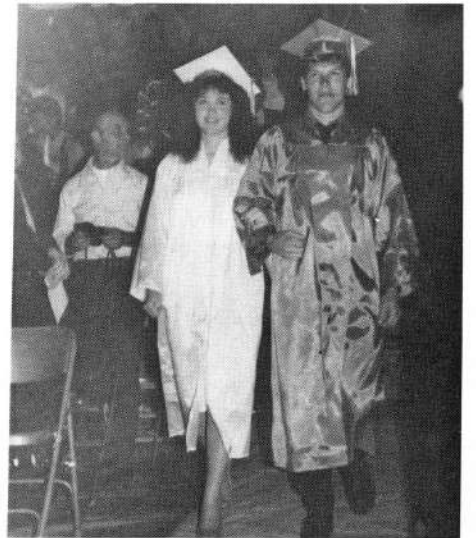

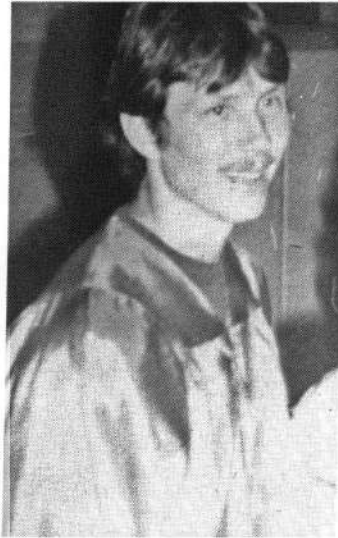

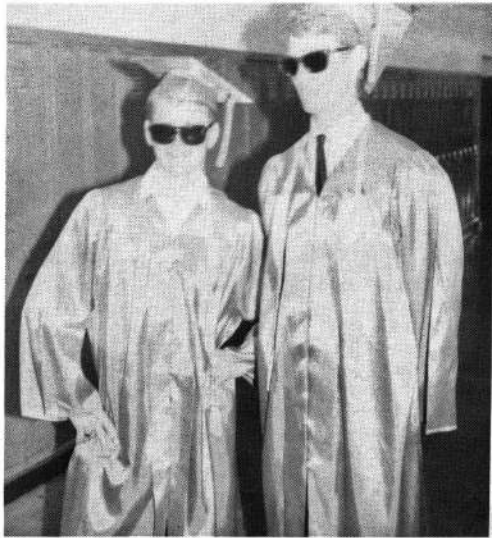

After graduation, the seniors boarded a school bus and were taken to Coos Bay and North Bend for a night full of activities.

The evening started with dinner at the Hilltop Restaurant. The seniors then went to Bay Area Athletic Club. AT 3:00 A.M. they went to the Elks Lodge in North Bend where they played black jack for funny money until 4:30 A.M. Prizes were then auctioned off. At 6:00 A.M. the class headed back to Port Orford for breakfast at Driftwood Elementary School. The larger prizes were given away there.
