Editor's Note

By Corinne Smeltzer

I want to share some remembrances with you that are specific to our school this year. (The 16-page color tip-in will remind you of the world and national events.)

This year proved to be quite eventful. Mr. Davis was absent the first six weeks of school due to health reasons. He was greatly missed and much appreciated upon his return. We had two new teachers this year: Mrs. Fancher, who teaches art, and Mrs. Andy, who teaches English.

Our girls' Cross Country team placed first in District and second at the State meet. We were all very proud of them.

Pacific's FBLA club sponsored the fourth annual "Shakespeare at Pacific" in November. Twelve of their members made it to state in the District V competition.

This year's basketball teams consisted of mostly underclassmen. Our boys' team did some really great things at the end of the season. The 1994-95 Homecoming King was Joe Lang and the Queen was Sara Bussmann.

The Shakespeare Festival in Ashland was May 24-26. The ten attending students saw the Twelfth Night and The Skin of Our Teeth.

Prom was held at Jot's Resort in Gold Beach this year.

Luke Marsh was seriously injured in a three-wheeler accident. Our thoughts are with him and his family. Several fundraisers have been held for his benefit.

The graduation theme for the class of 1995 was "Honor the Past; Cherish the Future."

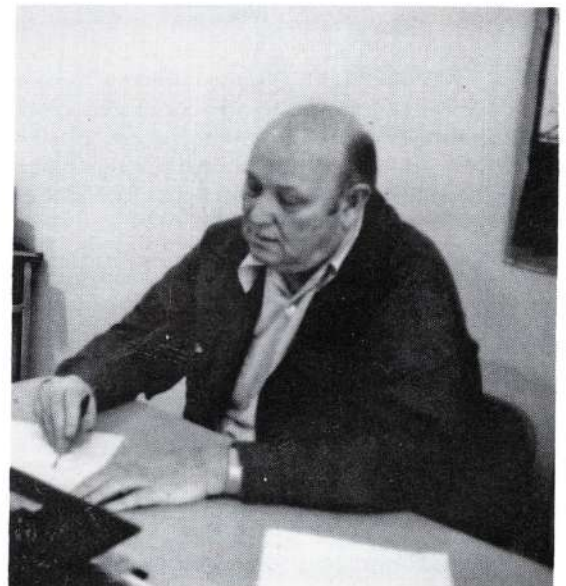

The yearbook staff of 1994-95 has been great. We have more than met all of our deadlines, even though our advisor was gone for the first part of the year. This staff was all inexperienced except for two members. The staff was all girls who got along splendidly. Some of our first decisions were to choose colors, the cover, and the theme. We struggled with what to choose for a theme, but we settled on "Reflections of Time".

Several people deserve our thanks: Kelli McGonagle, Paul Peterson, and Laura Lee Hall have donated many pictures to the yearbook. Lizzie Smeltzer did the Senior Collage page for which we thank her.

We have created a book of history that will become more valuable with the passing of time. I hope you like this publication of ANPAHI and see some pictures that bring back happy memories of the 1994-95 school year. I trust that you will feel the same satisfaction when you turn these pages as our annual staff did on its completion.

Mr. Dean Davis

The Best There Is

Gone to the Chickens

Mr. Davis' home in Arkansas, where he retired in June as a chicken farmer.

Mr. Marshall Dean Davis was born in Little Rock, Arkansas, in 1940. He has been a teacher for 33 years, 25 of those at Pacific High School, five years at Powers, two in Arkansas, and one year as a graduate assistant at Western Oregon State College. Mr. Davis has a certificate that allows him to teach any subject at any grade, seven through twelve. He has taught Personal Finance, Shorthand, Speech, all levels of English, including College Prep, Annual, and Creative Writing at Pacific. At other schools, he has taught U.S. History, Geography, and Government, as well as some of the same subjects he has taught at PHS.

Mr. Davis is the favorite teacher of many students. He will be greatly missed and we're sure our already great appreciation for him as a person and as a teacher will grow. Mr. Davis is as good as they come. He always gives all he has and provides all students will equal opportunity. He is the perfect combination of firm and compassionate and as they say: "Absence makes the heart grow fonder."

His future plans include returning to Arkansas, where he owns a home. During the first year, he will perhaps travel extensively and then settle down and decide whether he wants to work full or part time. This job will be outside the field of education. Of course, he will leave plenty of time for raising his chickens and writing for a local newspaper. The annual staff of 1994-95 dedicates this edition of the ANPAHI to Mr. Dean Davis. We wish him all the luck in the world.

Mr. Dean Davis corrects an English paper in his usual meticulous manner.

Mr. Shallert substitutes in Algebra I. He has been a regular substitute for high school students for the past several years.

Sara Bussmann and Joe Lang take a break from Aerobics to do classroom work with Mrs. Rundberg in the home ec. room.

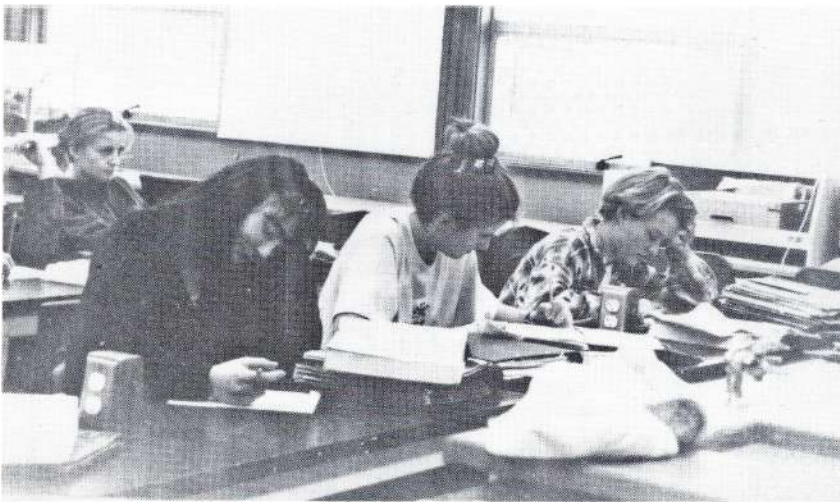

MATH AND SCIENCES

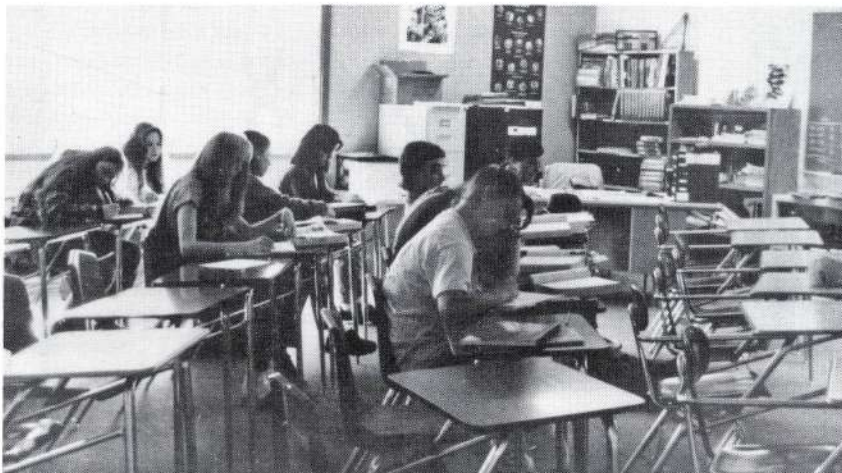

Mike Ringo graduated from Oregon State University with a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics. He is the advisor to the Senior Class. His hobbies include reading and golf.

Dale Bures also graduated from Oregon State University with a Master of Science in Zoology. This year he teaches Integrated Science, Biology, Chemistry and Marine Science and is also the Senior Class advisor. Mr. Bures' hobbies include reading, camping, hunting and target shooting.

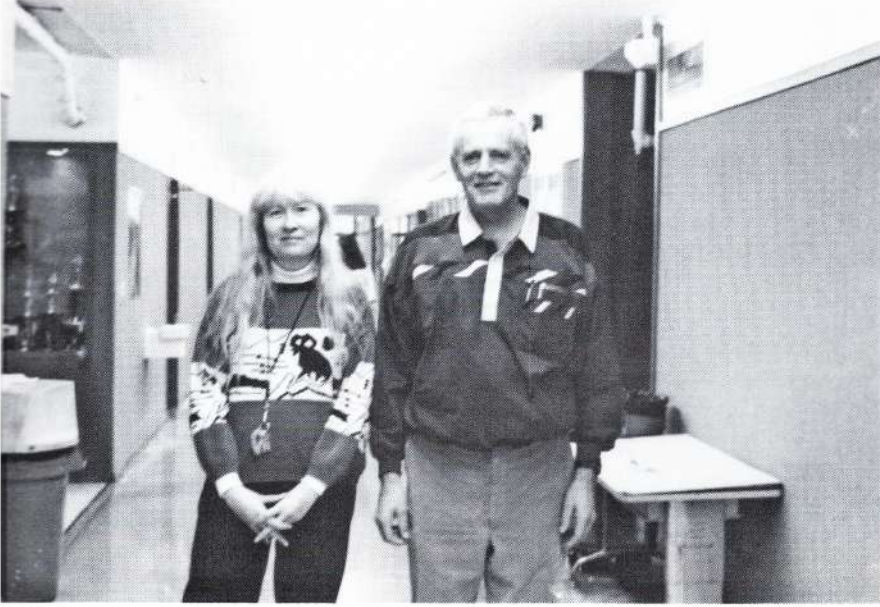

Shala McKenzie listens to the lecture while Jennie Chappelle, Tamara Thomas, and Alice Sweeney work hard on their biology.

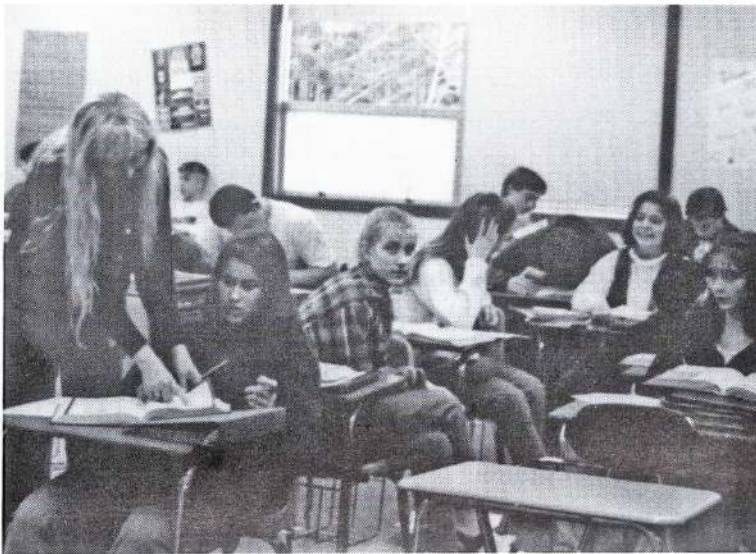

Heidi Hall, Ryan Rundberg, Rebekah Disbrow, Amber Tinker, and Trisha Moore stick to their math studies during seventh period.

COME TOGETHER

Karen McGowan graduated from California State University in Chico with a standard credential for Social Studies and Language Arts. This year she teaches Economics, Personal Finance, U.S. History, and World History. Mrs. McGowan is the Senior Class advisor and also the advisor for the Writers' Club and Debate Club. Her hobbies include reading, writing (for publication), and playing guitar.

Odell (Tim) Flake, Jr. attended Pacific University for two years and the University of Oregon for three years. During this time, he earned both a bachelor's degree and a master's degree. Mr. Flake teaches archaeology, psychology, sociology, and is Pacific's counselor. His hobbies include music, wood carving, collecting, and landscaping.

Maria Jamieson gets help from the teacher while Maureen Heyl and the rest of the class help each other.

Humanities Teachers

Mrs. Elizabeth Andy has a B.A. in English with a writing emphasis from the Dominican College of San Rafael. She teaches English I and II and Intro to Social Sciences. Mrs. Andy is a sophomore class advisor and her hobbies include reading, watercolors, drawing, and walking.

Mr. Dean Davis has a B.A. in English and history from the University of Central Arkansas and an M.A. in teaching from Western Oregon State College. He teaches English III, IV, and College Prep. He also teaches annual. Mr. Davis advises the sophomore class, the yearbook, and the school newspaper. His hobbies include traveling, photography, collecting, and reading and writing stories and poetry.

Mr. Michael Hall went to Pima Community College and the University of Arizona. He teaches speech and drama class. His hobbies are reading, acting, bicycling, and exploring nature.

Celebrate Diversity

Mrs. Jennifer Fancher has a B.A. in art from San Jose State University. She teaches 1st through 12th grade art. Her hobbies include traveling, quilting, sewing, birdwatching, and sports.

Mrs. Janet Kerker has a B.A. in Spanish from the University of California at Davis and has done graduate work at the University of Oregon. She teaches Spanish I, II, and III. Mrs. Kerker's hobbies include music, movies, cooking, and traveling.

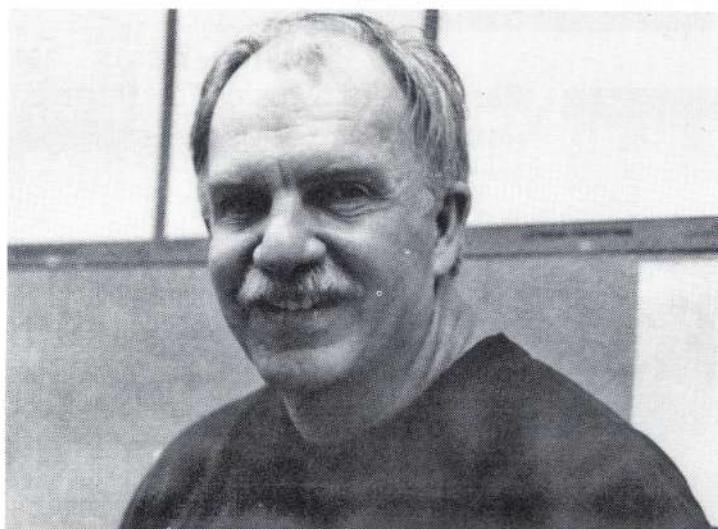

Mr. Wayne Harris has a Bachelor of Music Ed. from Lewis and Clark and a Master of Music Ed. from the University of Oregon. He teaches band, choir, and piano. He is a sophomore class advisor and the band and choir club advisor. Mr. Harris's hobbies include hunting, fishing, yard care, and home improvement.

TECH., ALT. ED., AND

Paul Young, Earlyene Pritchard, and Arvid Hixson

Jay Nave teaches seventh period typing. He has his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of California and his Master of Science degree from Oregon State University. Among his hobbies are bicycling, playing the guitar, and fishing.

Paul Young has his Master's degree in Art from the University of Oregon. He also attended SOSC and UCC. He now teaches Technology, Programming, Robotics, and is Computer Coordinator while he advises the Senior class, Student Council, and the Technology Club. When not at school, he spends his time building his house and rearing his 5 children.

Earlyene Pritchard attended Central Missouri State University where she received her Bachelor's degree in English. She later received her Master's degree at Southern Oregon State College. She teaches Beginning Keyboarding, Word Processing I and II, and Office Procedures. Mrs. Pritchard is the advisor for FBLA and the Sophomore class. Her hobbies include cultivating flowers and reading.

Arvid Hixson teaches woods, manufacturing, technology, drafting, consumer math and metals. He has his Bachelor's degree from Central Washington State University and his Master's degree from Oregon State University. Mr. Hixson advises the S.A.D.D. organization and the Junior Class. His hobbies include diving, hunting and gardening.

RESOURCE CLASSES PREPARE STUDENTS

Steven Hood, Astrid Battle, and Jim Hulslander

Seniors Amy Randolph and Chris Panter, above, learn on technology computers.

Steven Hood attended San Diego State University where he received his Bachelor's degree in Environment and Resource Geography. He has also attended Chico State University where he received his teaching credential. He teaches the alternative education classes. He is advisor for the National Honor Society, Knowledge Bowl, and the Junior Class. His hobbies include being outdoors, bicycling, hiking, and going on road trips.

Astrid Battle is the resource teacher. She has her Bachelor's degree in History and English from the University of Washington, and her Master's degree in School Administration from the University of Santa Clara. Mrs. Battle is the advisor to the Freshman class and S.A.D.D. She enjoys being outdoors and painting.

Jim Hulslander is a resource room assistant and is the boys' varsity basketball coach and an assistant track coach. He attended Southeastern Oregon Community college and has a Bachelor's degree form Southern Oregon. His hobbies include running, working out, walking on the beach and listening to music.

TEACHERS, STAFF, &

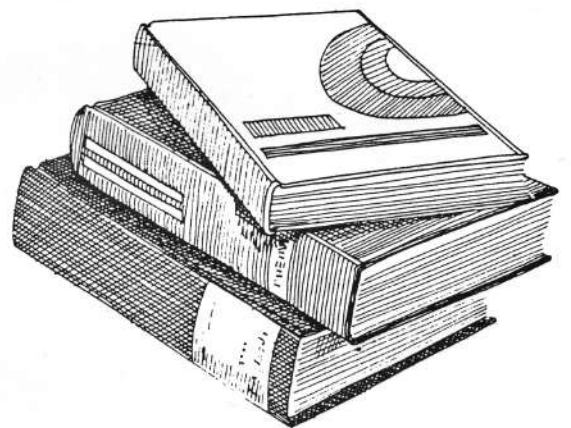

Mrs. Susan Rundberg, above left, attended Oregon State College where she received a B.A. in home economics. She teaches aerobics, is the District Librarian and an advisor for the Freshman Class. Her hobbies include crafts, cooking, gardening, and animals.

Mr. Jim Kistner, above right, teaches health, weight training, and P.E. He attended Western Oregon State College where he received a B.S. and Standard Certificate in Health and P.E. He advises the Junior Class and Runners' Club. His hobbies include fishing, hunting, backpacking, and woodworking.

Mrs. Bonnie Cox, above, is the high school secretary. Her duties include correspondence, bookkeeping, telephone communications (including substitute teachers), and endless other things that come up.

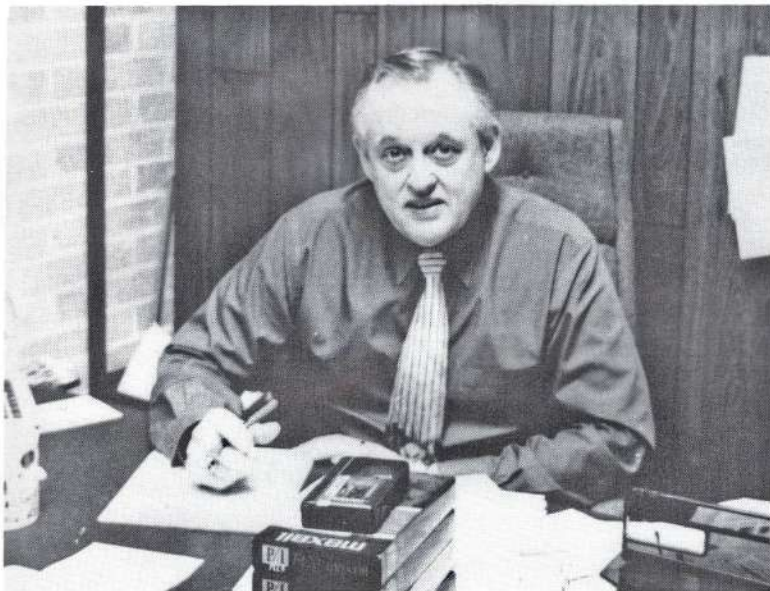

Mrs. Pat Donaldson, left, is an aide for business and technology. She also checks on the locker rooms and supervises the lunchroom at noon.

Mrs. Donna Owens, second from left, is our library aide. She also helps with teachers' request for copying materials and is the attendance officer along with supervising the hot lunch program.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Richard Wold, the superintendent, has his Master's degree from Western Oregon State. He enjoys running, hunting, and fishing.

Mr. Michael Nickless, above, Principal, is the overall leader of instruction and curriculum development. He is busy with the new direction in education mandated by Bill 3565, especially with the phase-in of CIMS and CAMS. He has a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and a Master of Science degree in School Administration, both from California State University at Fullerton.

Mrs. Kathy Hunt, left, is the business manager for the school district, after serving as the high school secretary for many years. Mrs. Gloria Koski, center, is the administrative secretary in the district office. She has a variety of duties in the clerical area. Mrs. Teresa Longton, right, is the bookkeeper. She pays the bills for the district.

Mr. Dick Wold, Superintendent of the district and chief administrator of the board.

The 1994-1995 school year was very productive for the School Board. During the summer of 1994 they sent Jennie Moore and Mandi Todd to the Oregon Teen Leadership Institute during the week of June 26 for a program that dealt with preventing drug and alcohol abuse. David Smith was Pacific's student representative. Marilyn Haga declared October 3 through 7 as Classified Employees Week. Marc Farmer reported to the Board that Nike had donated T-shirts and all proceeds from the sale will go to the PHS Athletic Department. These are some of the actions of our school board as we went to press.

Honor Graduates

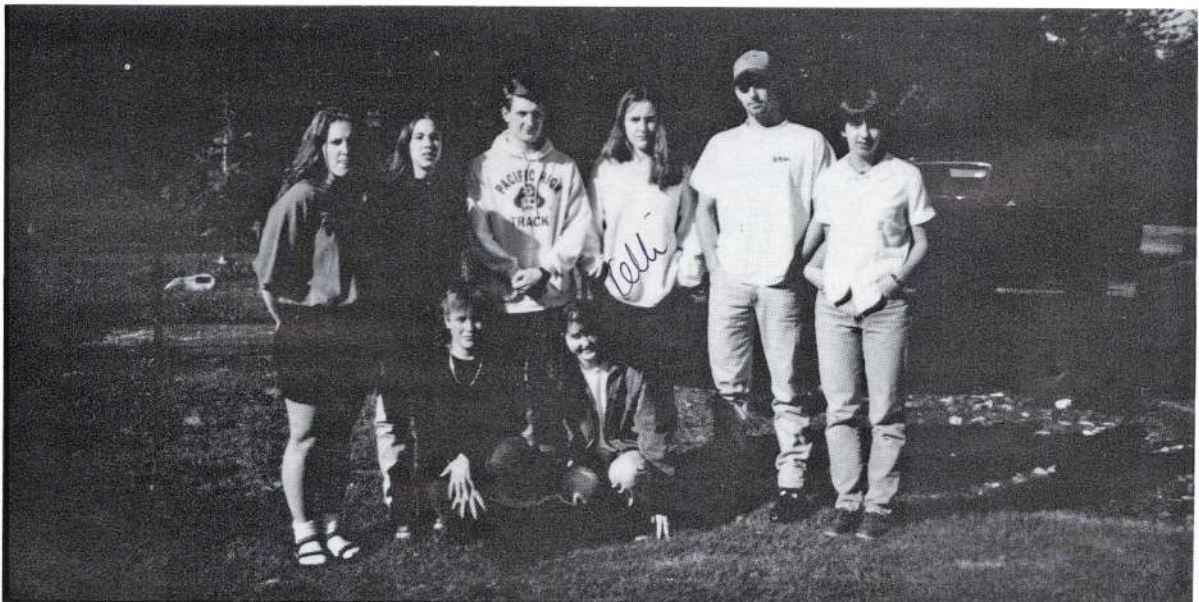

Christy Bewsee is the historian of this year's graduating class and plans to attend the University of Oregon in Eugene in the fall. Christy likes sewing and the outdoor activities of gardening, skiing, and camping. Christy was a volunteer at Camp Easter Seal and Kids Day at Gold Beach. She has been on the Student Council, on the annual staff, in FBLA, volleyball, and NHS. She gave the class history at Commencement on June 2.

Danny Haffner is the valedictorian of the Class of 1995. He enjoys running, computer programming, writing, and skiing. Danny has done a variety of work including hauling hay, painting, and being an animator/computer assistant for the Pacific High School video-editing studio. Danny's accomplishments during high school include: First place at Oregon Institute of Technology's Challenge for "original software", President and Vice-President of the Student Council, and qualified for state competition at OMSI Regional Chess Tournament. He plans to attend OIT in Klamath Falls.

Corinne Smeltzer is the salutatorian of the Senior Class. Her hobbies include skiing, traveling, and shopping. During high school, she has been involved in the Student Council, yearbook staff, FBLA, and NHS. Corinne was a volunteer at Camp Easter Seal and at the Port Orford Clinic and at the VA Clinic in Bandon. Corinne plans to attend the University of Oregon in Eugene in the fall. She was chosen as the student "Most Likely to Succeed" by the Seniors and "Most Studious".

Pacific High School

Pacific High, Pacific High School,
We will rally round and sing our battle cry,
We'll fight this battle through,
In every thing we do.
We love and honor thee, our dear old High,
We'll play for fame; we'll play for glory; and we'll play this game for you.
Pacific High, Pacific High School,
our Alma Mater true.

Pirate Boy

Now every Pirate boy is hard to beat;
He's just 100 per cent from head to feet.
He's got that smile, that style,
that winning way,
No matter where you go you'll recognize that smile and say:
"Now there's a boy I'd like to know."
He's got that good old Pirate pep
and go,
And just to look at him is quite a treat.
It's hard to beat a Pirate boy.

Many Honors Given

During 1995 School Year

The 1994-1995 school year was filled with many honors and special awards at Pacific High. There were many different activities and contests that the students participated in and many won honorable awards.

Zoe Bradbury entered a writing contest for U.S. Weekly and received second place for her short story. She also won second place in the Curry County spelling bee and second in the O.I.T. technical writing contest. Corinne Smeltzer and Christy Bewsee also entered the technical writing competition last year.

Hanneke Cassel was awarded with $1500.00 when she won The Discovery Card Tribute Award in the Arts and Humanities. Hanneke has also won many fiddling contests throughout the 1995 school year. She is the reigning Junior National Fiddling champion.

Danny Haffner won first place in software applications at the O.I.T. tech challenge in Klamath Falls last April. David Smith won second for the bridge he built, and the entire tech class won second for the submarine they spent endless hours working on. Paul Garrett and Chris Panter won third place in manufacturing engineering.

Anne Cox attended the Hugh O'Brien Leadership Conference in Portland on April 7 through April 9 after she answered three short essay questions last year.

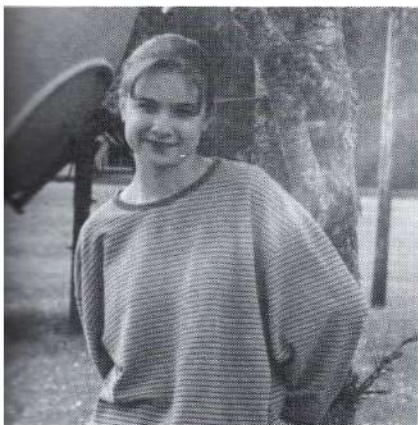

Chris Panter and Amy Randolph were both awarded with the John Phillip Sousa Award for their musical talents.

Robin Childs won third place in Beginning Keyboarding at the F.B.L.A. State competition last April.

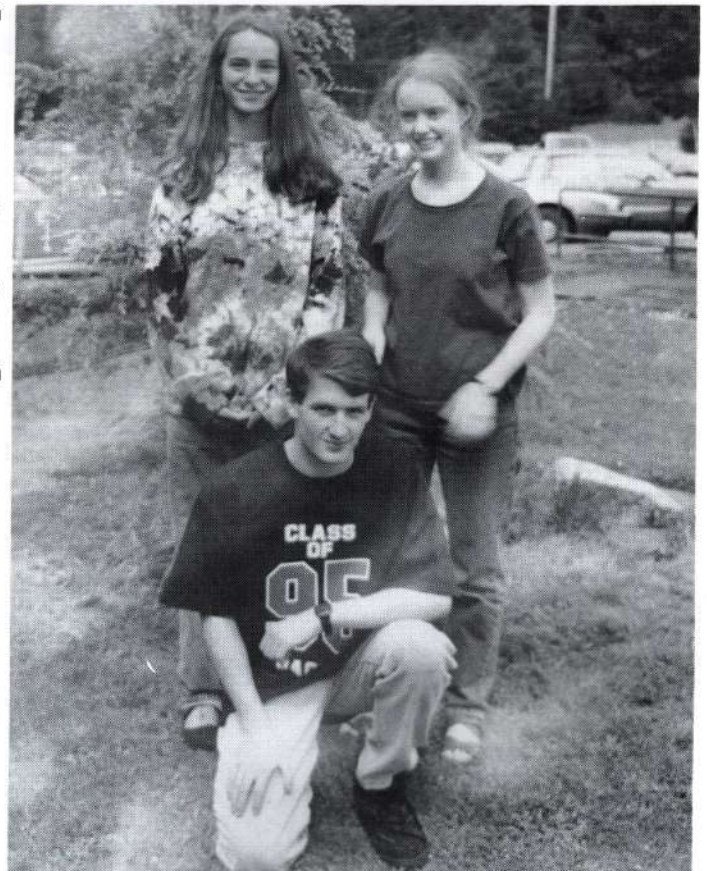

Congratulations to all these outstanding Pacific High students.

EXCELS AT STATE

The anxiety of the race to come effects Coach Jim Kistner at the State Cross Country Meet.

This year the Cross Country teams had a slow start but ended explosively. The team gained six new Freshman runners: Dylan Bumpus, Steven Greene, Tony Villa, Amy Knapp, Sarah Disbrow and Sarah Peterson. It was also Sophomore Donny Argo's first year on the team. Junior Rebekah Disbrow and Senior Danny Haffner were the oldest returning members of the team.

There were many new runners who ran well this year. Freshman Sarah Peterson came on strong toward the end of the season, ranking 3rd at district for team and 2nd at state. Freshman Amy Knapp showed her character by continuing to run with knee problems.

At the district competition the girls' team took first place for the third year in a row and the boys took third. Although the boys were not able to go to state as a team, they did have an individual qualifier, Danny Haffner, who came in 4th overall.

At State the girls ran wonderfully and brought home a second place trophy. A picture of the team accepting their trophy was printed in the newspaper.

This was Danny Haffner's last year. The team will miss him greatly and wishes him well after he graduates.

Soccer Team has 6-6 year

This year the PHS soccer team had help from two players from Bandon: Forrest Arnold and Van Pierce. They reciprocated by including Wayne Knox and Derrick Watjen on their football team. The overall record for the season was 6-6-1.

Four players won post-season awards: Van Pierce and Chris Panter made First Team-All League. Keegan Denn and Forrest Arnold made Honorable Mention. This year's team was coached by Father Bill Karath from Bandon.

Danny Haffner - ASB President

The 1994-1995 school year was an ambitious one for the student council. President, vice-president, and secretary/treasurer were Danny Haffner, Rebekah Disbrow, and Jeremiah Baker, respectively. When the school year started the prospects for the student council-administered school newspaper, Pacific's Specifics, looked pretty dim after the journalism class was dropped from the curriculum, but Danny and Rebekah were able to work a solution wherein they could take some time out of class, and publish a bi-weekly paper. In the process of continuing the restructuring of the upstairs balcony area into a student center, the student council purchased a foosball table which turned out to be very popular. The student council also sponsored the 1994 Christmas Dance the proceeds of which were donated to the Doernbecher Children's Hospital Foundation. At the time we went to press, the student council has presented pep assemblies and other student-related activities. As for student body attitude, we would probably have to say that Coach Jim Hulslander's words would fit best: "Let's get it done, baby!"

Lighthouse Chapter Inducts 11 New Members

The Lighthouse chapter of the National Honor Society at PHS has five active veteran members.

To be eligible to belong to this organization, a student must have at least a 3.25 cumulative grade point average and receive a favorable vote from the faculty on character.

If a student falls below 3.25, he is put on probation for a semester.

New inductees after the first semester include these students: Jeremiah Baker, Zoe Bradbury, Jennie Chappelle, Anne Cox, Teal Fleming, B.J. Hall, Echo Pruitt, Jeff Rundberg, Amber Smith, Alice Sweeney, and Tamara Thomas.

The NHS project this year will be fundraising for a scholarship to be given to a 1995 graduate of Pacific High. It is hoped this will be continued in the future.

FBLA Takes 12 to State Competition

This year the Pacific High Future Business Leaders of America Chapter accomplished many spectacular things. They raised money for two scholarships, had 17 people place in the top six at the District Competition and took 12 of these people to the State Competition. Liz Barker, Danny Haffner, Christy Bewsee, Anne Cox, Echo Pruitt, B.J. Hall, Amanda Loshbaugh, Alice Sweeney, Amy Machado, Trisha Moore, Robin Childs, and Michelle Steinfeldt all attended the State Competition in Portland on April 20 - 22. The fourth annual Shakespeare at Pacific was held on November 30, 1994 with actors Shawn Galloway and Lorenzo Gonzalez performing a variety of skits and scenes from various plays. B.J. Hall and Elizabeth Gordon did the basketball rosters to raise money for scholarships. The officers were Christy Bewsee, President; B.J. Hall, Vice-President; and Echo Pruitt, Secretary.

This year's Computer Club has twenty-seven members. Mr. Young is their advisor. The participants had some new and innovative projects this year. The technology class designed and built a submarine with a video camera in it. This was a switch from ground-based robotics to underwater robotics. Mr. Hixson's efforts in the technology class have given the students considerable advantages. Five students placed 5th out of 24 schools in programming competition at Willamette University, and they were scheduled to compete at OIT as we went to press.

David Smith and Katie Madison are working on a program called D Vision in the computer lab.

Annual Staff 1994-95

When the school year began, our advisor was in the hospital, but Mrs. Pritchard helped the class get started.

Corinne Smeltzer, our editor, had two years experience and Christy Bewsee had one year of experience, so they were of enormous help to the other members.

The darkroom is always a problem, but once the class mastered the new camera, the work was done more quickly. Everyone worked in the darkroom, wrote copy, headlines, and letters, sold ads, and did the other mundane jobs.

The Senior tip-in was due before Christmas and our other deadlines came in quick profusion. Ads were sold in April, by mail, and in person to local businesses.

Mr. Davis remarked that this year's annual staff was "very cooperative, reliable, creative, and original."

Rebekah Disbrow was chosen by the American Legion Auxiliary to attend Girls' State on the basis of leadership ability, character, honesty, cooperativeness, community service, scholarship and physical fitness. Girls from every school district in Oregon attended the activities at the University of Oregon June 26-30. They were assigned to political parties, nominated for offices at all levels, drafted platforms, made speeches and conducted elections.

There was time for socializing and making friends to last a lifetime.

The 94-95 Drama Class had an exhilarating year. In the first semester three One-Act plays were performed on the 19th and 20th of January, 1995. The Cola Wars dealt with the idea that inside all guys are the same: they just come in different cans. Performers were Jennifer Kirchgessler, Leta Schwartz and Jack Keeler as "the stud". Adrienne Baudry, Stephan Parks and Brienne Bryant were the actors in Doing a Good One for Red Man. Duck Variations starred Tim Reese and Larry Zitzelberger. In the second semester the drama class performed two One-Act plays on June 1st and 2nd, 1995. Free the Frogs had Larry Zitzelberger, Jennifer Kirchgessler and Stephan Parks as actors. In Cotton Girls Adrienne Baudry, Leta Schwartz, and Stephanie Pulver were stuck at the top of a Ferris Wheel. Many other students are also involved in drama. Students designed the sets, worked on plays in class that were not publicly performed and developed characterizations in plays. Mr. Michael Hall is the teacher and director of the drama class. He said, "The second year at Pacific has been very enlightening. The talent and energy put forth by the students in my classes has been amazing. There is a lot of range in their talent and skills, from singing, to dancing, to playing musical instruments, to speaking ability." Mr. Hall also said, "Amber Tinker did a great job of organizing a benefit concert for St. Jude's Children's Hospital. It involved both her speech and drama abilities."

P.H.S. Band & Choir

The Pacific High Choir has had a successful year in all aspects. The choir had fifteen members, the largest in approximately three years, and there were also more male voices. The choir performed for the Port Orford Rotary Club, Order of the Eastern Star, and also at the Christmas Bazaar held at the Port Orford Community Building. They also sang at the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts. Choir members performed at the High School Jazz Festival in Florence at Siuslaw High School and at the annual High School Choir Festival. The choir was busy with fundraisers and raffles. They raffled a hand-made dollhouse and also sold catalog crafts. Both fundraisers were held at the Christmas Bazaar. In February, Carrie Cheney, David Martin and Karen Jamieson participated in the Honor Choir held at Marshfield High School in Coos Bay. Karen Jamieson also participated in the Solo/Ensemble Contest at Coquille High School in March. Selected members of the choir also attended the Music in May Festival at Pacific University in May.

Mr. Wayne Harris, choir instructor, said this group knows how to set a goal and then to reach it, which they have done all year. He also said the choir was capable of pulling together at performances and that the 1994-1995 school year was one of the best!

The 1994-1995 PHS Band had an exciting year. At the beginning of the year they performed in the Bandon Cranberry Festival and the Annual Christmas Concert. In April they visited North Bend and attended the Annual Band Festival. In May they performed at the Annual Spring Concert at Pacific High School. Some band members also played at the Talent Show. There were many successful band members last year. Amy Randolph, who plays flute, and Chris Panter, trumpet participated in the High School Honor Band. Amy also played in the All-Northwest Honor Band at Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma, Washington in January. Trisha Moore, Jennie Chappelle, and Maureen Heyl attended the Solo/Ensemble Contest in Coquille.

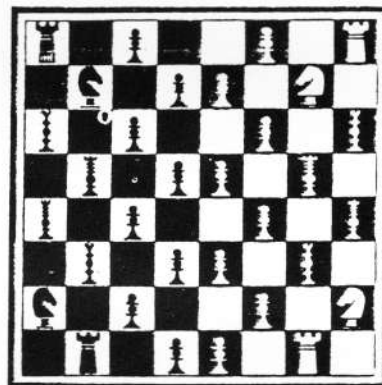

Mr. Harris said that this group of students is a very stable group and gives a consistent effort, even though they were low in numbers of participants. He also felt that the performance level of both the choir and band has dramatically increased over the years. Not only have their individual skills improved, but also they improved as a group. Mr. Harris is very proud of their achievements.

Chess & Writers Club

The Chess Club this year began with a new president Karen Jamieson. Elected vice president was Echo Pruitt and secretary was Maureen Heyl. The chess club competed once in Coos Bay and did well for being inexperienced competitors. Senior Danny Haffner was able to tie for first place while others practiced their playing skills.

This year the Writers' Club was a group of "good positive writers," said advisor Karen McGowan. They were able to produce their annual anthology. This year's anthology contained short stories, poems, essays, and plays. Mrs. McGowan wrote a novel and sent it to a publishing agency. She did this in hope of being published and to receive information about agents, legal processes, and other details. From this the club would learn what being a professional writer involves. Although the club did not meet often, they did create many interesting written works.

This year Students Against Drunk Driving participated in the nation-wide Red Ribbon Week from October 24 through October 28, 1994. Throughout the week SADD scheduled speakers and activities: Oct. 24 - Red Ribbon Day; Oct. 25 - Students pretend to die, to show how many people die in an 8-hour period from alcohol or related incidents; Oct. 26 - Guest speaker Officer Jeff Johnson from the Oregon State Police/Wear Red Day; Oct. 27 - Warm fuzzies (special positive notes) were passed out to students; Oct. 28 - Pumpkin-Carving contest. The class that participated the most in the week's events got a special pizza and movie party. The winners were the sophomores.

Knowledge Bowl

The academic competition between school is known as the Knowledge Bowl. It has the same format as the College Bowl. A team is made up of four players. Nine or ten students made up the panel. Eight competitions were held during the school year, and our team was competitive in all the contests. Our teams seem to be constantly improving. Mr. Hood is in his third year as advisor.

The 1994- 95 PHS JV girls' basketball team had an 11-3 season. The highest scorers were Stacy Kirchgesler, Amy Machado, and Sarah Peterson. B.J. Hall led in making free throws. Jamie Bussmann and Stacy Kirchgesler were the best rebounders. They were coached by Dan Leighton, who said the most memorable thing about the season for him was the win over Riddle and the team's impressive efforts against St. Mary's.

Eleven athletes made up this year's boys' J.V. team. Their record for the season was 0-13 in league competition. Larry Zitzelberger made the most points. Sam Goddard was the best rebounder, and, along with Jeremiah Baker, excelled in shooting free throws. The team's coach was Brian Watjen. He said that although the players on the team were behind much of the time, he appreciated their tenacity in never giving up.

Winning Team

Kelli McGonagle fights for a shot against the Eagle's #20.

The Girls' Varsity Team had various obstacles to overcome this year. The team was extremely young, with Kelli McGonagle being the only senior, Heidi Hall the only junior, and the rest being sophomores and freshmen. On top of that, it was Coach Lemerande's first year to coach Pacific Girls' Varsity. "Coach Lemerande was a good coach. He always pushed us hard, even when we didn't think we could do it," said team members Robin Childs and Jamie Dougherty. The team had good sportsmanship and was able to come together and win games. They have shown that in the years to come they are only going to get better.

The top scorer for the 94-95 season was Kelli McGonagle. She will be missed for her inspiration and skill as a player. The players with the most abundant rebounds were Sarah Smith, Amy Hall and Maureen Heyl. The players with the most steals were Anne Cox and Amy Knapp.

Cedric Reader was the leading scorer, averaging 10 points each game and with 144 points total. Cedric was a freshman who played the game very well. Tim Reese was the second highest scorer with an average of 9.7 points a game.

The year's leading rebounder was Paul Garrett with 55 rebounds in league games. Joe Lang followed him with 42 rebounds.

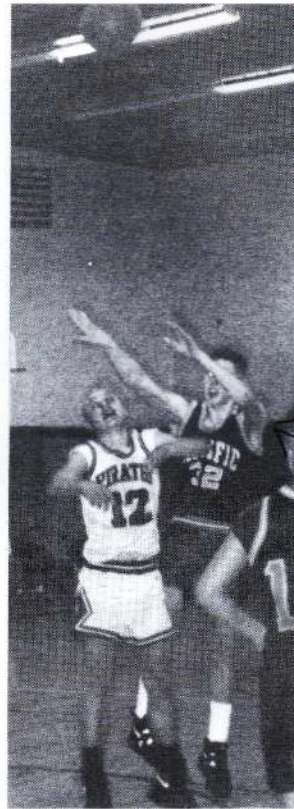

Mike Buchanan lead the varsity boys' team in steals with 37.

Coach Hulslander said that even though the team did not have a winning season, the boys played hard and never gave up. They improved with every game and fought hard. He is really proud of the effort that was put forth by everyone. Coach Hulslander also said that they will continue to build the team and will have success in the future.

Homecoming 1995

The PHS homecoming activities took place from January 30th through February 4th.

The Senior class organized the week's activities and won most of the dress up days: Monday-opposite sex; Tuesday-gangster; Wednesday-purple and white; Thursday-hat; Friday-western day. The activities to match the days above are cheerleaders' activity; sundae-on-face; freshmen spell PHS/class yells; tug of war; and pie eating contest.

Seniors also won the hall-decorating contest. After the game on Saturday night against North Douglas, a dance was held for PHS students and alumni in the gym. Queen Sara and King Joe had already been crowned at halftime of the boys' varsity game.

The Pacific cheerleaders had a new coach this year: Mrs. Laura Lee Hall. They had many two to four hour practice sessions and learned a new dance called "Jump" and three stunts for the homecoming dance. They also spent a night at school to prepare for homecoming.

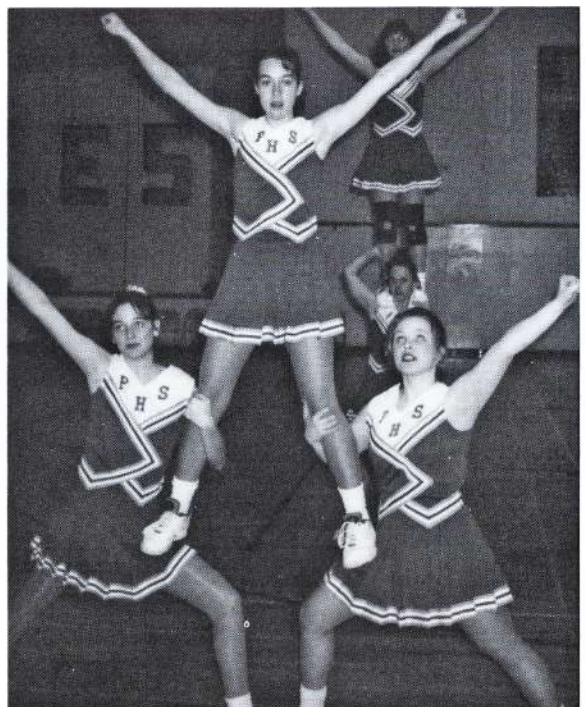

The rally squad hosted a cheerleading clinic in February for kids in elementary and middle school.

Their job is to foster school spirit and to encourage our teams in athletic competition. This group handled that responsibility very well.

The squad lost four seniors this year and they will be greatly missed.

Replacements are chosen from all four grades from tryouts before the other cheerleaders and a panel of judges.

1994-95 Jr./Sr. Prom

Jot's Resort/Rod 'n Reel Restaurant in Gold Beach was the site of this year's Junior/Senior Prom. It was held on Saturday, April 8, the earliest date in memory.

The adjacent dance floor was decorated with balloons and gossamer in the colors of blue, black, and gold. The picture background and the glasses distributed as favors reflected these colors and the moon and stars theme. "A Night Under the Stars" was the theme. Free drinks were available all evening to the guests.

The dinner menu included a choice of prime rib, New York steak, prawns, stuffed chicken breast, and seafood fettucini.

This year's royalty were crowned at 10:00. Seniors and Juniors voted for five males and five females from the Senior class, excluding Homecoming King and Queen. The King and Queen of the Prom were Mike Buchanan and Andrea Minton-Edison, chosen from that group. The rest of the court was Karina Anguiano, Christy Bewsee, Corinne Smeltzer, Karen Jamieson, Danny Haffner, David Kamph, Tim Fuller, and David Smith.

The wide variety of music was favorably received by those in attendance. Most participants were sorry to end their evening at midnight, but they did return home with many happy memories.

This year the students chosen for the Shakespeare trip saw Shakespeare's Twelfth Night and Thornton Wilder's The Skin of our Teeth. The plays were wonderful and everyone enjoyed them very much. While in Ashland the group toured the SOSC campus. They also visited Harry and Davids, Jackson and Perkins, two Jacksonville museums, the Rogue Valley Mall, and spent much time in downtown Ashland and Lithia park. The students, Mrs. Pritchard, and Mr. Davis all said they had a delightful time and the trip was a very educational experience.

The Pacific High track team was known for being a strong team. This year they were invited to many four A track meets because of this reputation. At these meets, they did exceptionally well and took home numerous ribbons and medals.

Some of the special aspects of this year were that it was the first year for girls' pole vault, in which Amber Smith, Zoe Bradbury, and Jennie Schoney competed. At District the girls' team placed second and the boys' fourth. At State competition Zoe Bradbury placed third in long jump and the 400 meter dash and second in pole vault. Sarah Smith placed second in javelin.

The 1995 baseball season was one of the best during the past years. The team came up with 7 wins out of 25 games. Eight of the games were canceled and not rescheduled due to our usual rainy season. Last year's team was composed of mainly freshman, but there were some upperclassmen. The team as a whole did an excellent job in accomplishing a winning season.

GRADUATION 1995

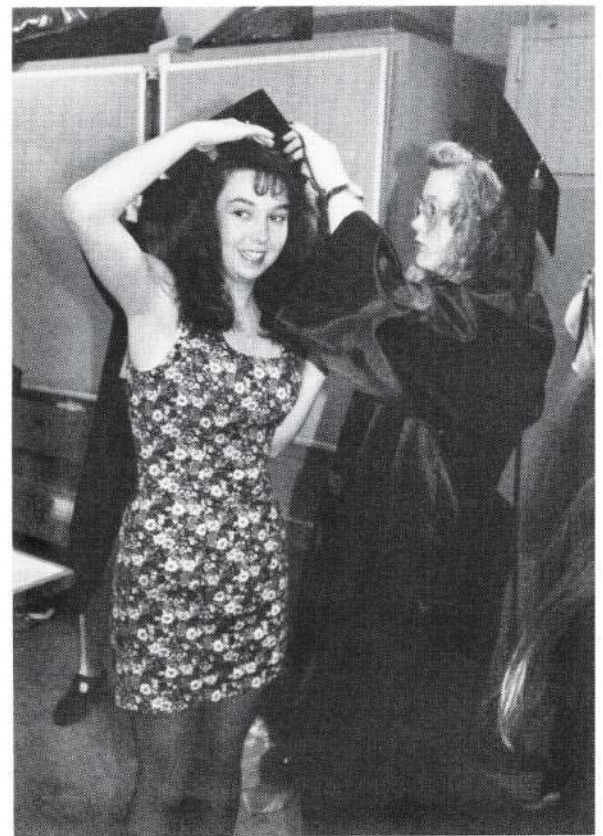

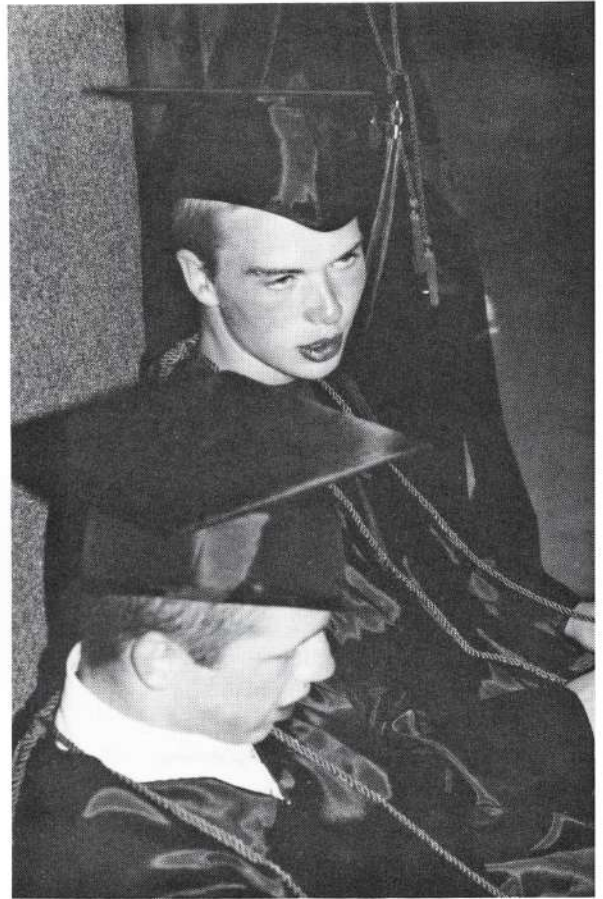

The Commencement Exercises for the Class of 1995 were held in the PHS gym at 8:00 on Friday, June 2, 1995, with a large crowd in attendance.

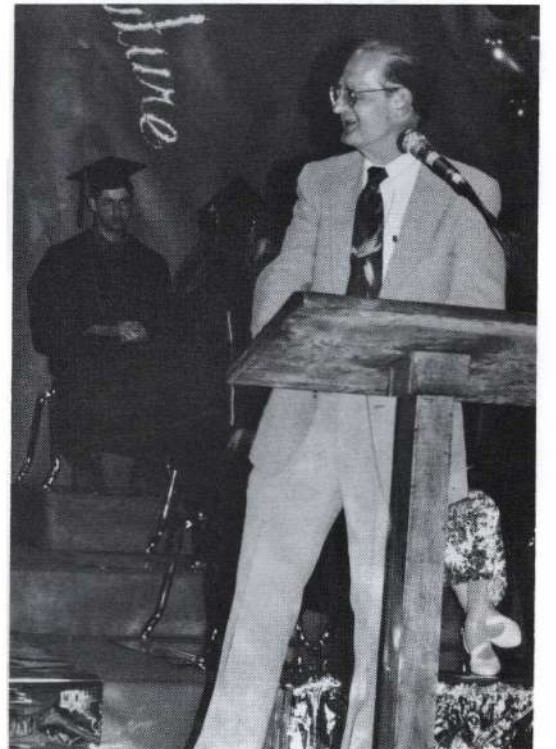

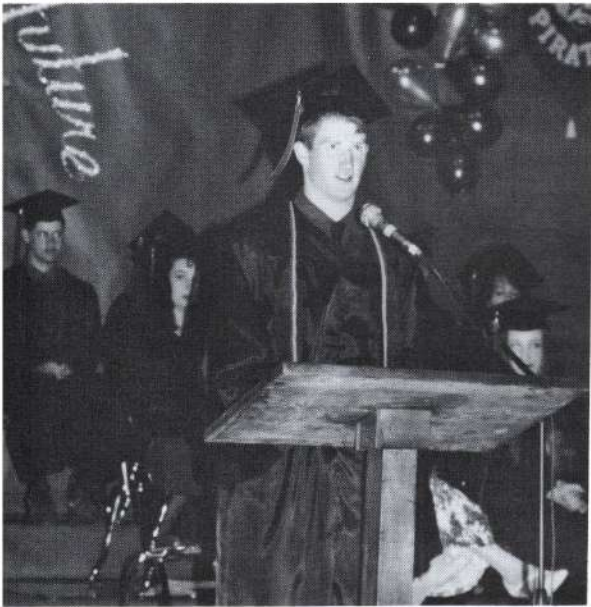

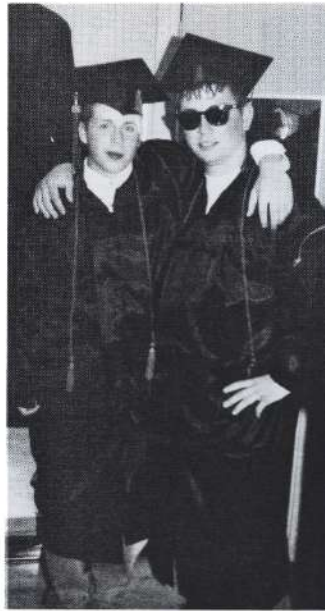

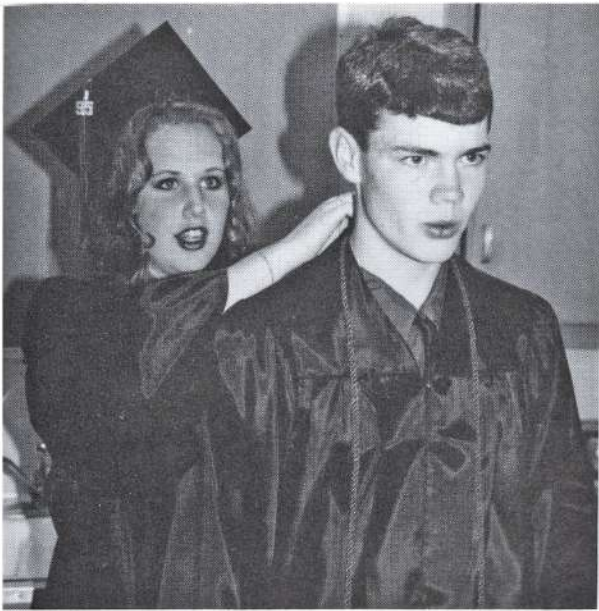

Some of the highlights included a welcome by class president Liz Barker, the salutatorian's address by Corinne Smeltzer, the valedictory by Danny Haffner, the class history by Christy Bewsee, and the main address by John Black.

Twenty-three students were presented to Mrs. Haga, school board President, by Mr. Nickless, PHS principal. Scholarships were awarded to 16 students by Mr. Bures and Mr. Cox. A number of musical selections were presented, including a solo on the flute by Amy Randolph.

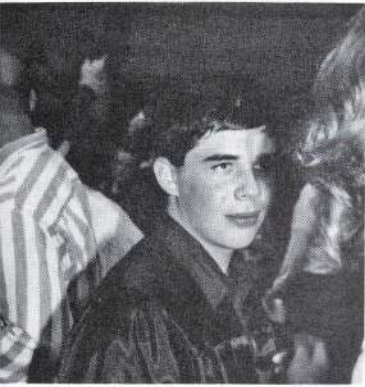

A wonderful video was presented of scenes from throughout the school year and the class poem was read by David Smith and Heidi Hajos.

This year's motto was "Honor the Past; Cherish the Future." The colors were black and purple, and the calla lily was the class flower.

Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein orders his troops to the border of oil-rich Kuwait. The U.S. sends 350 warplanes to the area to support the Kuwaiti forces. By October 11, Hussein orders the withdrawal of most of his forces.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin calls out his poorly trained military to subdue a rebellion in Chechnya, a southern republic the size of Connecticut. Critics accuse Yeltsin of resorting to totalitarian methods of the old communist Soviet regime to keep the shaky Russian Federation unified.

Europe's worst flood in this century kills at least 30 people across Europe. Inland floods caused by melting Alpine snow and relentless rains hit Belgium, France, Germany, and the Netherlands, whose famous dike system begins to crumble late in January 1995 in the face of rampaging rivers. Dutch authorities evacuate 250,000 people from the lowlands.

Camilla Parker Bowles, allegedly Prince Charles' mistress, announces her divorce from her husband, Andrew Parker Bowles. Princess Diana is said to be negotiating a divorce from Charles, who will be free to remarry without giving up the throne—unless unhappy subjects force a referendum on the monarchy.

More than 900 passengers die, 140 are rescued when the Estonia, a 15,500-ton Baltic ferry sinks off the coast of Finland in a violent nighttime storm. The storm's 30-foot waves swamp the ship which lists and sinks in a matter of minutes.

Joyful residents of Belfast celebrate after the Irish Republican Army (IRA) announces an end to its military operations in Northern Ireland as of August 31. After 25 years of British military presence and over 3,000 killings, the IRA says it will now seek Irish union only through political channels.

Tipper Gore, wife of U.S. Vice President Al Gore, visits Rwandan refugee camps in Zaire in July. Thousands of refugees, fleeing ethnic conflict in Rwanda, die of cholera, dysentery, and other infectious diseases. Fresh water supplied by the United States military greatly reduces the number of cholera deaths.

When their Army helicopter accidentally strays into North Korea in December, Chief Warrant Officers Bobby Wayne Hall and David Hilemon are shot down by the communists. Washington does not admit to espionage as the North Koreans want, but negotiates for survivor Bobby Hall's release by expressing its sincere regret over the intrusion.

Palestine Liberation Organization chairman Yasir Arafat returns to Palestine in July 1994 after 27 years of exile in Tunisia. Arafat kisses the ground in the Gaza Strip, now a Palestinian autonomous zone under the terms of a 1993 peace accord with Israel.
